MY MOTHER

Who was it calmed my childish fears,
And wiped away my early tears,
Then heartlessly washed neck and ears:
My Mother.

Who often of my smartness chants,
And any wish in reason grants,
But Oh how she has flailed my pants:
My Mother.

She knows by heart my meanest faults,
And all my virtues she exalts,
Declaring every charge is false:
My Mother.

She isn't feeble, old and gray,
Her hair is brown, her heart is gay;
I hope to keep her many a day:
My Mother.

But when our earthly hopes go wrong,
I know we'll meet in heaven's throng;
For that is where she will belong:
My Mother.

RING THE BELLS

A little brown bulb in a raggedy shell,
Has a story of Easter, so wondrous to tell,
That Springtime has power its body to raise,
And a gay nodding blossom, Spring's order
obeys.

We too, like the bulb, when our Master
shall call,
Will rise with new body, triumphant o'er all;
So celebrate Easter and ring the glad bells,
New life with the Master its message
foretells.

FEBRUARY

Has carried great men in her lap,
Can change from warm to coldest snap,
And on her ice we find mishap;
Slippery February.

She promises every girl a man,
And says "Go get him if you can,"
She has a regular four-year plan;
Promising February.

She makes with hearts a holiday,
Lets the lowly groundhog have his say,
And then just as she goes away,
Short-changes everybody.

ARMISTICE DAY

From threatening skies, arose the name,
Armistice Day to us became
An emblem of returning sons,
From danger under foreign guns.

An Armistice to plan for peace;
Oh, that it might from war release,
Till nevermore in blood and tears
Our finest manhood disappears.

Dear Helen,

Even though Howard's box didn't live up to my expectations, I'm glad that the whole business is done and I won't have that to pine over any longer. It was quite a surprise to hear from him last week and another surprise when he arrived unexpectedly Monday evening while I was dozing after supper. He is much like Beryl Gyde, a twin. Both are good old boys, with simple answers to the tough problems of our society. But his wife Shirley is pretty sharp, office manager at a doctor's office. She is used to computers while I don't think that Howard had seen one up close before. When his parents died, Howard threw away all their old correspondence and auctioned off their collections of stuff. I wonder how the box survived his care. I'll send copies of the photos when I get the films developed. That whole family, Simon B. and his children, were quite a remarkable bunch. Too bad none of that brilliance was passed on to the later generations.

I wish I was going along on your trip to Tustin. That area, and Lenawee Co, are the two places I'd like to visit in MI. Two more people have shown up lately who are interested in the Footes of Lenawee Co, but the mystery only deepens.

I didn't know that Sally was also a nickname for Cecelia; there are none in the Sprague records I have. Do you ever hear from Jean Dupuis?? Do you ever get an urge to visit Beryl and borrow some of his photos to copy? It is sad that Edie Mindermann in Port Clinton passed away a few months ago. She was the only person I've found who really knew my Foote line and I enjoyed her letters very much.

I've been using the Windows95 preview for a couple of weeks now. It is really nice. I'm looking forward to the complete program. How have you been surviving the hot weather back there? We got up to 107 a couple of weeks ago and 104 is expected in a couple of days, but that is not unusual here and it is dry heat.

Elizabeth Ann Thatcher married Charles Parker when she was 16; he left her when his son, A.C. was a baby, and she left her baby and her daughter Mary with her Mother and worked out.

She read of a man by his name being killed in an accident, and as she did not hear any more of him, after 3 years she married Simon Beeby Root Oct. 29, 186

While her baby was at her Mothers, Charle Story came, saying the Mother had sent for the baby, then a year old, and took him away and she was unable to recove him until 23rd Oct., 1885, she met him at Springfield, Mo.

Charles Parkers record I know nothing about except that after many years he was found to be alive and have another family, and had utterly neglected his first family.

I am getting to be old and am happy about it. I dont want to live my life over again with its tooth aches and babies to raise and I don't want my children all wrapped up in me.

I just want to have absorbing interest in various hobbies that are worth while, have friendly contact with my children and grandchildren, keep in touch with life so I am not a back number, Not whine but laugh when I get a knock, and so live that my friends will not pity but laugh with me and not at me.

I insist on being happy over common things that anyone can have. Wherever I am I can see beauty, find interest, make someone else happy, and meet the grim reaper without fear, for my thoughts are not built on death as the end of this life, but the beginning of a better one.

I hope none of mine will be inclined to shed tears and mourn but rather to say "Mother was a good sport," I'll meet her in the morning."

Mrs L Chancherty Dear neice as I have not heard from you or any of the Quiggs for quite a long time I guess I better try to kick up some excitement some way so I'll try to draw you a picture of the house where I was born also your mother was born in the same house I cant give detailed measurements but about 20×24 ft the trees are only a sample as they stood thick all over the 80 acres except the small corner in the lake otherwise not a tree amiss and the largest stand of hardwood timber counting hight and diameter and mixture of timber. if I was not mistaken you were informed our place was directly west of the cemetry. that was the second place the homestead was across the road from the cemetry south the west $\frac{1}{2}$ of north west quarter of section 22 Grand fathers place was north $\frac{1}{2}$ of n.E. $\frac{1}{4}$ of section 22 the Goodman place was south $\frac{1}{2}$ of S.E $\frac{1}{4}$ of section 16 father sold the homestead in 1882 for \$1600. and bought the Goodman place for \$800. then sold to Goodman and came to Mo. when he homesteaded the place Reed City was their trading post 35 miles 35 miles by foot path and Paris their postoffice and end of the R.R.

pat was 1868. he and Filo Shank chopped the house logs put them togather by hand spike split and carried shake put 2 tier on the south side and one on the north side and went home and father and mother were working in a lumber camp winter of 68-69. there came 4 ft of snow and ice on top of it that carried a a team and load the camp shut down for the winter father hired a team and two men to go along and they moved to the log house over logs and brush a good road any where they wanted to go they moved in Feb. 04th 1869 with ½ a roof no floor, door, window or chinkin shoveled out the snow sent the men and team back next day and father and mother made a home and a farm of it not a nail glass or any kind of metal in the construction or sqwed board the door, floor and roof shake were cut and split with an axe and the door pinned togather with wooden pins the window was a raw tan deer skin. the hinges swung on wooden pins. if you want to know any more about the place write and ask me I'll tell you all I know most of it is what they told me well I am pretty well for the shape I am in how are you write when you have time how are all the rest as ever uncle Bill & Olive

Dear neice I received your letter and Christmas Card glad to hear all fine Eva seem well glad also you had a good trip up McBain way. Mrs & Mr Dunham had writen me of the Earnest Duval and Lizzie McB. marriage and owning the old place and leaseing for gas. said at that time they were puting a well at each quarter section one at the S-W-Corner of the Mount Pisga 40 as they used to call it. I often wondered how large those Maples were and also how large the ones along the road by Billy McBains were they were 2 to 3 inches 1890.

well now about the cemetry at Sherman Centre I am afraid I cant help you much until I get able to serch the old letters My father and mother cleared the cemetry father hauled logs from it and had lumber sawed for the road fence and town house I picked up the nails from

& from a pan and passed them to father when about 2 or he never could have done it father got the G.R.& I rail road at that time owner of all lands on uneven no sections a strip 20 miles either side of the G.R.& I R.R. the cemetry was plotted father got a lot burried sister Minerva then brother Otis then the Vulchers replotted canceling fathers rights to half the lot forceing him to pay agan for half his lot I recently saw the receipt you will agree that the curse of God should rest on that community for that and other deeds no wonder father fled to the Ozarks there were a few nice people there as for Bill Kidder he was the second boy baby born in the township I was no 1 your mother was the first whit child born in the twp. Bill K. father Charley Kidder killed a large bear near our house I'll mark X in ink on the plot

3) I cursed him black and blue
for keeping Mother and sister Mary Wade out there holding a pan lite while he skinned the bear your mother helped me think of bad things to say too. Tue 23. well I will try now to finish I was taken down with Flue
Dec 9. and had all the trimmings that go's with it since it is far the worst case I ever had Mrs Wyant is also bad off with it yet but got her penicilian shots sooner and escaped the Pneumonia part. I think the cimetry was replotted on a differant plan changeing the early plans as I always understood father
he and mother were to be burried side by side the children to be at their feet
I also have a girl Wilma burried beside Otis those five are the only ones I know of being burried on the lot there was no pine on the cimetry that I know of perhaps it was set later. they grow fast. I have made you a little pencil layout I could list old settlers and their location when I get better but all were on even no sections home steaders I have many old letters &
acounts of fathers that should give us a field day if we could look them all over but I am to blind to do much about

however there is a letter from your mother in the lot that may help some I always scorned the neighborhood too much to even be familiar with much of it and now I will close and get this on its way wishing all a merry christmas and happy new year I also hope Eva is much better and the rest well as ever Uncle Bill & Olive Wyant

the homestead was W½ of N.W. ¼ of section 22
the old log house was built without a mill sawed piece of wood no nails bolts screws glass or metal of any kind

S. B. Root fitted 3 corners of the first Hotel in Cadillac, made of logs, in 1877. It was the 4th log house he helped build at Cadillac. The first a trappers shanty first house there. Then a residence, third a grocery + dwelling, then came the Hotel and Mills. Before that, Stone Ledge Lake was the main City, now a ghost town, about 3 miles South of Cadillac. Cadillac used to be Clam Lake then.

DOGWOOD THOUGHTS

Sweet thoughts always come to me
While gazing on the dogwood tree.

Like spots of lingering snow
The blooming tree is sheltered
On the mountains sunny breast
Or is it skeins of silken floss
Tossing bits of lint upon the air?
Bending a bough, I touch the satin petal
Longing the while to stroke the crest
Of the snowy albatross.

But I'm content with the dogwood tree
Because it brings sweet thoughts to me.

Why do sweet thoughts come to me
When I gaze upon the dogwood tree?

Sweet, snowy, flower, again I tarry
With the great quiet. Can it be
I hear a faint beating? Do I intrude?
Is it the drum-like song of the cassowary
Breaking the solitude?
No, it is the great pulse
That makes the bloom so fair
Healing winters sting with balmy air.

What strange, sweet fancies come to me
While gazing on the dogwood tree.

LAST NIGHT

I have tucked last night away,
Deep in the dungeon of my heart—
And locked the door.

Its ecstacy still warm today.
And 'though we are far apart,
I love thee more.

Held fast in your embrace;
All cares I had forgotten,
Secure in your love.

Your kisses fell upon my face;
Of stormy passion begotten.
A blessing from above.

BY-GONE DAYS

I'm traveling today down memories lane
And the trip. alas. now gives me pain.
I see the children that used to be there
Wide ribbon bows in braided hair.
The trees along the winding stream
I see at night so oft'n my dream.
Remember the happy "egg roast" days
Our happy care-free games and plays,
The big bonfire. the eggs we cooked
In buckets and pots. down by the brook?
Those were happy "teen age" days
Wonderful quiet old fashioned ways,
The young folks gathered from all around
From the country and from the town,
We played the games of "Snap and Tag."
And laughed at the jokes of our home town wag.
And "Flying Dutchman" we also played
The fun we had, each boy and maid!
Those dear old days of the long ago;
Alas. that kind of fun no more we'll know
No "egg roasts" now on Easter eve
For those dear old days now grieve.
The Easter morning parade to church,
And the lovely Sunday morning hush.
As the pastor gave his sermon there
With love and happiness everywhere.
Oh. for those good old days of the past
How we wish that they could last.
But we travel alone by the winding stream,
For alack. and alas. 'twas only a dream.

AN OLD-FASHIONED GIRL

An old-fashioned girl. so sweet and true;
A little brown curl. eyes tender and blue;
She's always so sweet. smiling. so gay;
Laughing and happy all the long day.
She doesn't wear bobby sox, nor finger-nail paint.
Her dresses are pretty, old-fashioned and quaint.
She's demure and sweet. a gay little elf.
Kissable and haughty. I love her myself.
No painted cheeks. or lips so sweet;
Always prim. chaste. and neat.
Just a dear little girl. old-fashioned and true.
Oh. darling. my darling. I surely love you.
Not a bit flirty. you don't put on airs.
But my darling girl for me surely cares.

GOOD OLD DAYS

In 1885. in the late fall. my parents. brothers, sisters and I landed in Springfield.

Our first surprise was to see a bullet hole reported to have been made in a gun battle with some notorious Bill. Next day we proceeded to Ozark and lived in the Dennis hotel while waiting for our goods to arrive from Michigan.

Father bought a meat market and store and also operated a huckster route through Christian, Taney and Stone counties with the help of Mr. Sharp and elder ones of the family.

Strange to say, the Dennis family consisted of parents and 10 daughters while a rival hotel keeper named Mack had 10 sons. Though each was envious of his competitor in hotel and livery stable business they used to exchange help—waitress and chamber maids for chore boy and drivers and seemed to do a good trade.

* * *

As our goods arrived, we rented a house and moved. Then came a fire that destroyed the hotel, our store, and the whole north side of the square for a block north including the jail. Well, as the poor prisoners didn't know what to do being burned out at night, a couple came and stayed with us and in the morning all were ready for roll call and some were sent home and some transferred to other places.

As our financial loss and lack of storage baffled our enterprise, father decided to try farming so rented a farm near Sparta and farmed there the next summer. We heard the Bald Knobbers beat a Mr. Johnson and a Mr. Whitaker.

So when our crop was harvested, we decided, as much as we liked the Ozarks it was too rugged for us, so we loaded what we could in a covered wagon and headed north and went in to Hickory county.

* * *

We got a farm on the Rocky Ridge road; got possession April 1, 1887, and in less than a month a cyclone destroyed our buildings and fences. But the real spirit of the Ozark people, or hill billies if you please, showed the equal to such disaster and the entire storm damage was soon replaced and forgotten.

That was followed by a second storm in about two weeks which did less damage but peeved a German neighbor. The community had raised funds to build a church and he had given $50. It was well under construction when the first storm destroyed it, so being a liberal Christian, he gave another $50. Next time the material was just nicely on the ground when the second storm scattered it again. So they went back depending on his generosity, but he was a changed man and said he gave $50 to build that church and God Almighty "dunder it down" then he gave another $50 and God Almighty "He blow it away" and, "If God Almighty don't want any church there I'll go to the other church."

* * *

Then there was an organization called Wiel which was perhaps a forerunner of the M.F.A. They hired father as lecturer and organizer.

They had a picnic, got groceries at wholesale for members, and were cutting quite a shine, had nice big flag of 38 stars which I still have. They had fireworks but, as father had got typhoid fever by then and no one was used to fireworks they divided them up and the rockets were being fired around amoung the crowd.

Seeing the danger, they decided on target practice and, the flag being best target, it received several hits when some one said it was wrong to shoot at the flag. So, penitant as a child, they hunted a different target and made the most of a good time.—WILLIAM ROOT, Mountain View.

THE CARPENTER OF NAZARETH

Jesus, the Carpenter of Nazareth,
A Master Builder was He
He built, not for time alone,
But for all Eternity.

He built a bridge from heaven to earth,
A link 'twixt man and God,
A way leading up that's safe, secure,
Over which the humble have trod.

The rocks He used were His broken body
Cemented with Calvary's blood,
In truest love they were bound together
To span sin's raging flood.

He built a royal telephone
That leads to God's own ear
Straight from our hearts, this line does go
That our thoughts and prayers he'll hear.

He builds anew the souls of men
That are wrecked and ruined by sin
He makes them whole, complete once more,
Ready a new life to begin.

He is building a city so fair;
'Tis the one that John did behold,
With its gates of gleaming white pearl
And streets of pure shining gold.

He is building, too, a universe
That sin shall mar never more,
This lowly Carpenter of Nazareth
Who once walked Galilee's shore.

—YVONNE BENCH, Rogersville.

HOUSE HUNTERS ATTENTION

House hunters! house hunters! listen to me,
I know of a house that's empty.

It has no water, no gas, no lights and such
And. matter of factly, the house isn't much.

It's not even furnished, or so I hear,
Except a few ghosts to keep good cheer.

The rattle of chains, the long wierd boo-es
Seeing a creature with no body, and no shoes.

In the dark. ghosts float through the air
Don't stutter just ask him, "Who are you, Who's there?"

It sounds rather fantastic I know you'll say,
But think of the advantages you'll get this way.

HELLO! MARCH

Hello, March! Just march right in,
Prepare to take things with a grin;
At last she staged a hit and run,
But there's worse things she could have done.
Yes, February has come and gone,
Now you may turn your dial on.
She left us not a carpet green
But one thats oh, so white and clean.
We turn things over now to you,
We'll watch and see what you will do.
We hate to say, but just can't hush,
That you'll soon give us mud and slush.

—MRS. C. V. F., Springfield

MARCH IS HERE AGAIN

March is here again, with lots of ice and snow;
She has spread a blanket white over mother earth,
And covered all the flowers and grass with snow so deep.
This does not keep the birds from singing songs of mirth.
They are flying to and fro seeking food to eat.
You look about the village street. no one in sight;
You knock upon the cottage door. all are at home.
You smell pop corn, you eat and laugh with delight.
March. we know you must come, that we will have spring.
Please. don't snort. puff. and blow everything away.
Breathe softly. bring sunshine. and melt this snow and ice.
We will thank you, March, and let you go your way.

Log Cabin Memories - by Wm Rast.
Mountain View.

I, too, was born in a log cabin and I am proud of it as all others seem to be. Soon after the Civil War, Father was working as foreman in a construction gang, building the Grand Rapids & Indiana railroad, at which he & his crew were quite adept. As the road far in the rear sunk ~~far~~ below the surface in quicksand, Father & his crew were called out of their beds to go help with other crews to make a new road around the lost portion.

They completed this in 48 hrs. and hauled back in the night with order to continue their regular work at 7:00 A.M. This added insult to injury as their regular days were 12 hrs., so they decided to go north where there were fine homestead rights

Father got 80 acres, 10 mi. S. of where Cadillac now stands, with the N. W. corner at the center of Sherman township and S. W. corner in a beautiful lake called Center Lake, which was their water supply until later on. He & his friends built the body of the cabin. Half the roof above the plate logs were gable-end logs, then a log to act as ridge logs on either side nearer the center, then two end logs, then two more ridge logs, & on top of the next end logs came the final ridge log. Upon those ridge logs were hand made shakes known to some as clapboards. They were about 4 feet long, split with a fro from beautiful white pine trees, nailed double tier for those who had nails. Others held them in place with ridge poles. Then, the logs & other cracks were sealed with moss.----

When my parents moved in on the last of Feb. there was 4 ft. of snow, half a roof, no floor, door nor window. They were the 5th family of settlers other than Indians, in the township. The numerous owls seemed to say "Who, Who, Who are You?" While the big timber wolves traveled in packs ~~traveled in packs~~ of 25 or 30 baying like hounds until they surrounded & killed a deer, then came the mutilation and wolf fights which would last until near daylight. The big limbs in the trees overhead would bump & crash together in the wind and Mother would pray for safety & Father would promise to cut those trees down in the morning.

But, between making the roof, the floor, and a door all by hand, getting the required wood, and carrying water from the lake, nearly a half mile except what they melted from snow, the trees still squeaked & banged until Spring.

Their nearest neighbor was 1¼ mi. and nearest store 35 mi. and they traveled by blazed trails. What they called hotels were bark shanties, facing a big log where they would keep a fire to reflect in and keep wolves out. Yet Father & Mother claimed those were the happiest days. Two elder sisters, now departed, were born there ahead of me. The first was the first white child and I was the first white boy.

Deer & bear were often in sight and Mother and an elder sister held a grease light, recently described by a cabin bark "Waste Basket" writer, while a neighbor dressed a big bear near our house, as Father was away working in the timber.

There was a faithful dog who knew every settler within 10 miles by name and was dependable to send on an errand with an Indian-made basket and note suspended from his neck, and later for a guide for us kids to school 1½ mi. by trail.

When school was called he would return home until Mother sent him for us at the day's end. As we go back and visit the old homestead, we wonder was it worth the endeavor, as those most beautiful giant trees were worthless in that day for want of markets.

Those terrible snowfalls were up to 4 ft. with ice so strong that in late winter teams could travel on top of it like pavement. My father helped build the first 4 log buildings of Cadillac, the last a hotel. I still have it's picture.

Re: Lorenzo Root, brother of Sophia Root Lee

Dear Ms. Read:

Last month I wrote to Ann Burton in Decatur, MI to have a query published in Genealogy Gems, having seen her ad for free queries in Everton's Genealogical Helper. I was delighted when she sent me a photocopy of a cemetery inventory recently published that listed a family plot containing the graves of Sophia, Hiram and Lorenzo. Ms. Burton also sent me copies of correspondence that various researchers had with you.

I am a descendent of "High" and Sophia through their son, Henry Wallace Lee. When researching Henry's military records, I found that he enlisted in Decatur, MI and that is how I found them. When I saw Lorenzo Root in the Lee family cemetery plot, I felt that he must be a close family member and wondered if he could be a brother of Sophia. They appear to be close in age judging from the ages and dates in the cemetery inventory. Could they be twins?

Their son, Henry Wallace Lee, married Virginia Grangeen in Crawford County, Arkansas in 1867 and died in Neosho, MO in 1923. They had seven children.

My line of descent is as follows:
Becky Sager m Carl Guess
George Sager m Dorothy Dickey
Eli Sager m Clara Cowell
Charles Sagars m Lucy Ann Lee
Henry Wallace Lee m Virginia Grangeen
Hiram Lee m Sophia Root

The information I have on Sophia and Hiram is scant, but I would be glad to share whatever I have with you. Please contact me if I can be of help to you.

Happy Hunting,

SDAY, APRIL 10, 1930

ELMORE'S OLDEST CITIZEN REACHES 91ST BIRTHDAY

1930

Elisha Sarnes, Elmore's oldest citizen and one of the best known men in the county, will reach his 91st birthday this coming Sunday, April 13. While some may consider the 13th an unlucky number, Mr. Sarnes can hardly believe it has been so in his case for how many who are born on a lucky day can boast of more years than Mr. Sarnes or a more successful career than his. Over a year ago he had a bad fall on the slippery sidewalk and for a time he was confined to his home but now he walks down town practically every day, without a cane and with body erect.

Mr. Sarnes first saw the light of day in a log cabin a mile and a half east of town on April 13, 1839, and for 33 years he lived on the old homestead, though he helped to build a new house on the place in the meantime. When he was a baby the entire country around was a dense forest with a small clearing where the house stood. Elmore did not then exist and this place now called Elmore was nothing but a forest. Roads as we know them were unknown but paths were cut through the forests for traveling.

It was in the early fifties when the Lake Shore railroad was laid out through this territory that a plot of Elmore was made and houses built. He was about 12 years old at that time. In June, 1872, when he was 33 years old, he married Miss Eva Knight and a month or so later moved into the house he had built for himself at the corner of Fremont and Ames streets. That was 58 years ago and he still lives in that same house.

His wife died a number of years ago and since then various families have lived in the house with him. His son and daughter are still living, the son Eugene in Fremont where he is cashier of the Fremont Savings Bank and the daughter, Mrs. W. H. Yeasting of Toledo, wife of the president of the Commercial Savings Bank and Trust Co. Mr. Sarnes is a member of the I. O. O. F. Lodge of Elmore.

ELMORE'S OLD AND HIGHLY RESPECTED CITIZENS

1932

Elisha Sarnes, Elmore's oldest native pioneer citizen, celebrated his 93rd birthday anniversary on Wednesday, April 13. He was in his usual health and, apparently, as "young" as last year at this time. He was down town, as is his daily custom, and chatted with friends in his usual friendly manner. He has spent his entire life here and seen Elmore develop out of a forest region, the village having been plotted and the very first houses built here when he was a small boy. He is the father of Mrs. Wm. Yeasting of Toledo and Eugene Sarnes of Fremont.

March 16-1931

Mr. and Mrs. Orman Hille, who recently purchased the William Sarnes farm on the Hall road, expect to take possession next week and Mrs. Sarnes and son Forest plan to come to Elmore. The Elisha Sarnes house where Mr. and Mrs. Hille have been living will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Sarnes.

—An Austrian, named Sabo, employed in the quarries at Clay Center, was sent to the asylum by Judge Bowland last week. He was violent and it was necessary to place him in restraint. His wife lives in Austria and he has no relatives in this country. 1-4-1907

80-Year-Old Letter Is Prized Possession of Oak Harborite

When friends and relatives gather at the home of James Saddoris, Oak Harbor, R. F. D. 2, on February 2nd, next, to help him celebrate his 80th birthday anniversary, they undoubtededly will be privileged to read a letter which was written a month before Mr. Saddoris was born, and which today is one of his prized possessions.

The letter, a time-discolored document, recently has been in the possession of Mrs. Eva Walters, Third street, Port Clinton, a daughter of Mr. Saddoris. It was written on Jan. 8 ,1854, by H. C. Dalbey, in Berlin, Holmes county, Ohio, to Mr. Saddoris' father, the late Elias Saddoris. In it is contained the story of the death of Mrs. Dalbey on Saturday, December 3 ,1853. Mr. Saddoris, Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. Dalbey were warm friends.

The letter, while in a good state of preservation after these many years, is slightly discolored. As was the fashion in those days of the early '50's any message of death was bound with a piece of black cloth and fastened with a seal. The seal and cloth are still attached to this aged letter.

Naturally it is one of Mr. Saddoris' most prized possessions, as it was handed down to him by his father, Mr. Saddoris, who next month observes his eightieth birthday, is a native of Ottawa county, having been born in the vicinity of Oak Harbor, where he has spent all his life. Despite his advanced age, he is sad to be in good health.

Ottawa County a Wilderness When Saddoris Came

James (Jim) Saddoris, 82, well known farmer and justice of peace of Carroll township, is still wearing a pair of shoes he bought in 1898. The shoes are in very good condition even though they are 36 years old. In referring to the shoes Mr. Saddoris states, "I never used any polish, but greased them with harness oil. I bought the shoes from John Scheuerman, and he told me they would give me a lot of wear, and believe me they have."

Mr. Saddoris was born and raised in Carroll township, within a mile and a half from the place he now lives. His occupation is farming, which he still works at when he is not busy with his justice work. When speaking of farm work, he states, "Yes sir, I farm and I like it. When I was born, farming conditions were a good deal different from the present. Oxen were used in place of horses, and this country was all wilderness. Wild game of all kinds were common, deer, fox and wild turkeys. The red fox were the worse." 9-28-1934

Some of farmers around here use to fish as a side line. They used to catch sturgeon, some ten feet long. In these days sturgeon was thought unfit to eat and were left on the beach to rot. Now that they are few they are considered the best and are very high priced.

Mr. Saddoris enjoys telling about the school days, which were held in a small log building erected by the people of the community. The seats were made of logs slit in two, hued to make them smooth on the flat side, with four legs driven into each. The school room had but one desk which was also crudely made. Each pupil had to take turns to use it. The school term was not a set date —when the children were present they had school. Perhaps in all the term was not more than three months a year.

Mr. Saddoris is in the best of health and enjoys visitors. He is esteemed by all, and we all wish for him many more years of peace and happiness. He is jovial, always cheerful, always optomistic.

Dear Mrs. Read

It was a pleasant surprise to receive the Read, "Red Book" from you the other day. Of all the letters of inquiry that I sent out, your response was the only one that I have received. I guess folks today are just not as interested in their family background and ancestors as people used to be.

As requested, enclosed is a check for $15.00. This is a piddling amount as compared to the amount of labor you have put into this work. It truly has to be a labor of love. I thank you greatly.

I have a couple of corrections and additions which you may want to add to your data base.

> Our fathers name as it appears on my birth certificate is spelled Frederic B. Henderson
>
> My brother's name was Edwin M. Henderson. He was named after our Grandfather, Edwin Munson Henderson. Lucinda Munson was our Great Grandmother. I am sad to say that brother Edwin passed away December 22, 1996.
>
> Edwin and Barbara Jean Root were married on January 4, 1947.
>
> Harriet Ann Henderson was born according to her mother on July 16, 1953
>
> Virginia Bedell and I were married March 20, 1944 (div May 1952) We have three children; Thomas Read Jr., Lucinda Ruth, and Michael Craig.
>
> Beverly Mae Goldhammer and I were married in June 1952. (div June 1956) We have two children which are named Walter Edwin, and Patricia Ruth. By a previous marriage she had a daughter named Katharine Joan. Kathy took the Henderson name, however was never formerly adopted.
>
> Laverne Edna Walther and I were married June 15, 1959. (div Dec 1992) We have two children, Howard Barkley, born August 3, 1965 and Janet Edna , born October 22, 1967.
>
> Charlene Ann Grunhof Kramer and I were married on December 30, 1983.
> She has three sons, Robert William Kramer Jr. born July 9, 1960, Richard Reid Kramer, born September 27, 1962 and James Donald Kramer born July 17, 1964.

Along the way, Charlene and I have picked up a couple of quasi daughters, actually former girlfriends of her boys. Wendy Taylor (m. Kramer, no relation) and Carrie Gratner (m. Marsh) We are close to these girls.

I am sure that I will have many questions after digesting your book. One for now is, what does the initial 'B' stand for in my mothers name? (Harriet B. Henderson)

Thank you again for the book and also please convey my appreciation to your husband's nephew for referring my inquiry to you.

yours very truly

Mrs. David J. Read,

Toledo, Ohio 43623

Dear Mrs. Read:

In reply to your letter of January 19th, 1965 regarding the Hunt family in this area I have some data on the relatives of William G. Hunt.

William G. Hunt was the third child of his parents, Captain Theobald Hunt and his wife Susan Caldwell. Theobald Hunt was an officer at Fort Malden (Amherstburg) He was first commissioned in 1806, and promoted to a captaincy in 1816. He left the British Army at Amherstburg and became a resident. His marriage was by licence, February 2, 1818. I believe the ceremony was an Anglican service. I do not have the birth date or death date of Captain Theobald Hunt. I recollect a family account that his death was sudden from ptomaine poisoning and probably was in the 1830's. I believe he was absent from home at the time of his decease and (again from memory) the place of death was said to be Sandwich, which place is now part of Windsor, Ontario. His wife Susan Caldwell was born at Amherstburg in 1786, and she survived to attain the age of 94 years, dying at Amherstburg, August 30, 1880. (The Caldwell family are noted for longevity a characteristic still prevalent among the descendants). Susan Caldwell's father was among the first settlers at Amherstburg. During the Revolutionary War he had been first an officer in one of the southern colonies and was wounded at Charlestown. From thence he was evacuated to New York and thence to Quebec. He served for several years operating out of Montreal and Niagara, but later was sent to Detroit. At that time he was attached to the Indian Department and he took part in the final campaigns in Ohio. At this period he had great influence among the Hurons (Wyandotts) by reason of marrying one of that nation. By his Indian marriage he had two children, a daughter and a son. The son was known to history as the Sagonash or "Captain Billy". Captain Billy was old enough to be an Indian leader in the War of 1812 and was a personal friend of Tecumseh. Following the War he was briefly an Indian Agent at Amherstburg but later was a merchant at Chicago. An old family story relates that when William Caldwell contracted his second marriage to the widow Reaume, born Suzanne Baby, the Indian wife brought her two children and left them on the doorstep of the new bride for her to raise, which she did. Mrs. Caldwell's father, Jacque Duperon Baby (1731-1789) had been attached to the French service before the conquest of Canada, but later served the British Indian Department at Detroit, where he was very influential in both military and civil spheres. Jacque Duperon Baby fathered 24 children but only about 11 grew to maturity. Suzanne Baby, wife of William Caldwell, was born Nov. 26, 1766, at Detroit, the 7th child of her parents. She died in November, 1812, presumably at Amherstburg, but possibly at Detroit, as the War of 1812 was in progress and her husband had moved with the Indian Department to Detroit when that place was captured. Col. William Caldwell was an early Member of Parliament. He had been born in Fermanagh Castle, Ireland. (The ruins of the castle still stand). He died at Amherstburg in 1822.

Regarding the ancestry of Captain Theobald Hunt I have nothing on record. His Regiment was a Scottish one raised in Glasgow. The two commissions mentioned, 1806 and 1816, are signed by George III, of Great Britain and Ireland, and are exhibits in the Fort Malden Museum, Amherstburg. Some of his descendants refer to him as "Wolf" or "Wolfe" Hunt which may have been a nick-name. The commissions only give the one name "Theobald".

My records indicate that Theobald Hunt and his wife Susan Caldwell had five children: Arthur, Alice, William G., Mary Ann, and Susan? The details as follows -

1. Arthur,
b. 1821 d.
m.

Among his children was Francis ("Frank") Arthur Hunt, who married Emilie Lemay, and this couple had ten children. I attended school with the youngest two of this family. Another son was Joseph Hunt who married Mary Beaudoin and they were parents of five children. Another person which may be a brother of the above named Francis and Joseph is William T. Hunt, born about 1851, who married Annie LaLonge dit Gascon. A son, William T. Hunt, Jr. was born at Monroe, Michiagn, in 1873.

2. Alice

3. William G. (if this is your ancestor he is the William George Hunt.
b. 1825, at Amherstburg d.
I have no record of who he married, but your letter states he
m.
Ellen or Helen Cummins
d.

My record of William G.'s children does not mention any "Thomas"? I have mention of David J. who married Kate Green at Argentine, Kansas, in 1883; William Francis, born 1855, who died in Amherstburg in 1937, June 15. He married in 1880, Elizabeth Colborne, who died in 1890, the mother of 4 children, Irene, Gordon, Melvin, and William; John Edward b. 1857 (The date you give for the approximate date of birth of Thomas). Edward 1st married Rose Meek, then 2nd. Mary Burns. John Edward Hunt died Feb. 16, 1885, and 3 weeks later a son was born to Mary Burns; Collier James, born 186_ . d. 1953, Aug. He married a Miss Primeau, and they had a large family. I went to school with the older children of this family along with two cousins mentioned above; Mary Harriett became the wife of Timothy P. Barron, and they had a son and daughter who resided in Michigan; Walter, born in 1878, married a Michigan girl, Both are now deceased. They had a family of 11 children; Myrtle who was probably born in the 1860's married George Cowper, and a son of this couple resided in Los Angeles; ?Nellie, married July 23, 1885, Joseph Robidoux, of Amherstburg; Elizabeth, b. 1856, Dec. died 1885, May 17. She had married Denis P. Barron, and left a son born 1880, and a daughter born in 1884; and Mary Ann who was born in August, 1859, and married Samuel Heard, of Amherstburg. She died Jan. 2, 1882. You will note this listing is not in order of birth of the various children. Possibly, if we had all the birth dates there would be a space for your Thomas, and there is also the possibility that he was a twin, and not mentioned in my compilation by being removed from the area.

4. Mary Ann b. d. 1887, Aug. 1. She married G. Collier Robbins - no children
5. Susan b. "died before her mother", the wife of "Mr. Wiseman"

You will note quite a few of the Hunts died in young adulthood. The deaths were nearly all from the ravages of T.B. which carried off several from each generation, among them two or three that attended school with me.

I mention the possibility of twins because some present-day Hunts produce twins with some regularity, one family having two sets. This was Leo Hunt who was married twice. Each wife gave him twins and enough "singles" to make a family total of 13.

Most of the local Hunts are Catholics but the original ancestor was Protestant. The Caldwell ancestor, William Caldwell was also Protestant. His wife, however was Catholic. William Caldwell donated the land upon which the first Protestant church in Amherstburg was built in 1819. This is Christ Church, Anglican, still in use. In the deed granting the land to the church he made the stipulation that one pew be reserved for the Caldwell use, and one pew can be seen with a brass plate attached naming it as the "Caldwell pew". The land upon which the present Catholic church stands was presented by a sister of Mrs. William Caldwell, Mrs. Cannon, so the family connection stands out prominently in Amherstburg church history, both Catholic and Protestant.

There are quite a few in this area bearing the name "Hunt", but not one person carries that of"Caldwell", the male lines having all died out. However, there are probably hundreds with Caldwell ancestry through the female lines and extinct male lines. If you go further back to the Baby connections almost every family that has been in the area for a century or more can claim relationship

Your account of Thomas Hunt being a sailor on the Detroit river was in character of the times as most Amherstburg boys turned to the river and Lakes for employment. Some of the Caldwells and Babys were sailors too. One of the Baby captains went further afield and became quite wealthy developing steamship services from New York to Panama and from the Isthmus to San Francisco during the Gold Rush days following 1849. Later his firm started the first steamship service across the Pacific first to the Hawaiian Islands, and then to China.

My records of the Hunt family are derived mostly from newspaper clippings, and occasional mention in genealogies, letters, and information from members of the family, with a limited number of documents available in the Fort Malden Museum.

If you are really interested in following up the Hunt history in Amherstburg, a good place to consult would be the Registers of the St. John the Baptist Church (Catholic) here in Amherstburg. These Registers commence in 1802.

With best wishes, I am

Yours sincerely,

David P. Botsford

William Rogers
Notary Public
in and for Osceola County.

Joseph M. Root & wife BY SHERIFF,
TO
John F. Radcliffe

Received for Record this 25th day of July A. D. 1896 at 7½ o'clock A. M.
Lottie G. Clark Register.

This Indenture,

Made the Twenty-fifth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six

BETWEEN Reese W. Jones Sheriff in and for the County of OSCEOLA, in the State of Michigan, of the first part, and John F. Radcliffe of Hersey, Michigan, party of the second part,

Witnesseth, That Whereas, Joseph M. Root and Mary E. Root his wife, of Hersey Michigan, on September 10th 1890 made a certain Indenture of Mortgage to John F. Radcliffe which was duly recorded in the Office of the Register of Deeds in and for the County of Osceola, Michigan in Liber 29 of Mortgages, on page 141, on December 1st 1890

which said Indenture of Mortgage contained a power of sale, which has become operative by reason of a default in the condition of said Mortgage. AND WHEREAS, by virtue of said power of sale, and in pursuance of the Statute in such case made and provided (no proceedings at law having been instituted to recover the debt secured by said Mortgage, or any part thereof), a notice was duly published that the said premises in said Indenture of Mortgage described would be sold on the Twenty-fifth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six at ten o'clock in the forenoon, at the front door of the Court House, in the Village of Hersey, Osceola County, Michigan that being the place of holding the Circuit Court, in the County where the premises are situated. AND WHEREAS, in pursuance of said notice, I did on the Twenty-fifth day of July in the year last aforesaid, at ten o'clock in the fore noon of said day, expose for sale at Public Vendue, the lands and tenements hereinafter particularly described, and on such sale did strike off and sell the said lands and tenements to John F. Radcliffe for the sum of Three hundred and twenty-three Dollars and Eighty-eight Cents that being the highest bid therefor, and John F. Radcliffe being the highest bidder; which said lands and tenements are described as follows, viz:

The North West quarter of the South East quarter of Section six Township seventeen North of Range nine West, containing forty acres of land more or less, according to United State survey

Now, this Indenture Witnesseth, That I, the Sheriff aforesaid, by virtue and in pursuance of the Statute in such case made and provided, and in consideration of the said sum of money so paid as aforesaid, have granted, conveyed, bargained and sold, and by this Deed do grant, convey, bargain and sell unto the said John F. Radcliffe, and heirs and assigns, FOREVER, ALL the said lands and tenements hereinbefore described, with the appurtenances, and all the estate, right, title and interest which the said mortgagor had in the said lands and tenements, and every part thereof, on the Tenth day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety that being the date of said mortgage, or at any time thereafter; TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said lands and tenements, and every part thereof, to the said John F. Radcliffe and his heirs and assigns, forever, to their sole and only use, benefit and behoof, forever, as fully and absolutely as I, ~~the~~ Reese W. Jones Sheriff aforesaid, under the authority aforesaid, might, could or ought to sell the same.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal the day and year first above written.

Signed, Sealed and Delivered in Presence of

8 May 1995

Dear Helen,

I'm afraid that too much time has passed by. You can probably imagine that I am swamped, and attack whatever is the most pressing at the time.

Winter Study 1995 was even more incredible than 1994. A dear friend of three years ago was back. Alex Rondeli is chairman of the department of international relations at the University of Tblisi, Republic of Georgia. We are able to talk about any political situation in any place in the world with complete openness and candor. He has a most pragmatic attitude about many things in his part of the world. The last time he was at Williams, Giamzacordia was in control, and things were not good. Eduard Shevernadze took over some time after that, and things, although not the greatest, have improved.

One of my students this year (which I select from survey questionnaires that they fill out in the late fall) was a young woman who had completed three years at the University of Yakutsk, her home. Look it up in the atlas; in far east central Siberia, Alex says that it is the coldest spot on the face of the earth. In January, he said that it is warming up to about –55°C. Elena would request conference time (which I make available to all, free afternoons or evenings) to ask about some of the more esoteric terms used in photography. Observing the process was fascinating. She would ask for clarification of a term, write a couple of words of description in English, and then scribble the "real" meaning in Cyrillic script!

Williams has quite a strong exchange program. In addition to Elena, joining Alex and me for dinner would be a campus friend of Elena, Youliia, who had completed three years at the University of Moscow, her home. She was there to tutor Russian. Also, on various evenings, were another woman from the Caucasus region of Russia, another from Uzbekistan, and another from central Austria. One other evening, at another table, was an exchange from western Spain. I really hated to leave.

I have put together all of the material you and Charles sent. (I haven't yet entered all of his source documentation, but I shall in due time.) The result is the enclosed. I also enclose copies of the pages from Tracy Hazen's book that contain your family.

I mentioned Athol Hazen of Marshall, MI. He and his wife, Helen, attended the second biennial reunion of the Descendants of Daniel Hazen, United Empire Loyalist, in Simcoe, ON, last July. (He is not one of them, as am I not, but it is a good excuse to get together.) Athol and Helen had stopped here in 1991 on their way to a convention in Burlington, VT. About a week ago, I came across a scrap of paper, ten layers down on my desk, that I had torn from a place mat in Simcoe. It mentioned a reunion in late June. I called Athol immediately; Helen said that it is held every year. It will be in Wayland, MI, if my recollection is correct. In any event, Athol's address and telephone number are in the footnotes to the enclosed. I have no doubt that you would be welcome.

Athol has done some digging on his own. It may be that some of his work has intersected what you are doing. In any event, I believe that he lives right in the middle of the area where the people whom you are researching lived. You are certainly a lot closer to Wayland than I am. I'm going to take the big bird.

I may have mentioned during the course of our conversation that I was a beta tester for Roots IV, the successor to Roots III. Unlike the older version, Roots IV was written and is being maintained by its vendor, COMMSOFT, Inc. Incidentally, COMMSOFT has moved since you bought ROOTS II. Their current address is P. O. Box 310, Windsor, CA 95492. The appearance of ROOTS IV to the user is totally unlike anything you have seen before. The working screen is a three generation tree, within which you can navigate by clicking the mouse. The screen shows the "subject," his/her parents, his/her children, and his/her siblings. You make any of these the "subject" merely by clicking the mouse on the name.

I have not started using it in more than an acquaintanceship tour because there is still not a clean way to extract information into a word processor file other than Microsoft Word. As it is possible to import into ROOTS IV from ROOTS III at any time, I continue to use III to build my databases. After they get their problems ironed out, and after I have a chance to take the not small amount of time that it will take to learn the new system, I'll do it. But not now. I do have good contacts at COMMSOFT, though, who are happy to get my feedback on my reactions to what the program is or is not yet able to do for me.

Since returning from Winter Study this year, I upgraded to a faster printer, a Hewlett-Packard 4Plus printer. It prints at 12¼ pages per minute, and, with the proper version of word processor to drive it, will print both sides automatically. I have also had to upgrade the amount of RAM in the computer, to better handle the large documents that I print from time to time. The '486 computer now contains 32 MB of RAM; the printer has a 16 MB SIMM, in addition to what it comes with. I'm going to have to get a notebook computer that has improved capabilities, too; the '386, 20 MHz which contains 3 MB of RAM will not load all of the files in any one database.

You mentioned Smith ancestors in Sandisfield, MA. Our past Williams College class president, Howard Smith, lives in Sandisfield. I do not know, however, whether that is where his family had its origins.

I think that is all of the damage that I can do this time.

Sincerely,

Stan

3. Lavina[2] Hazen (Thomas[1]). Born, 20 Jun 1847, in Munson, Geauga Co., OH. Died, 29 Jul 1908, in Dunningville, Allegan Co., MI. Reference: 3347. Individual number 10168.

She married John Mortimer Root, son of Vandosto Sprague Root and Lovica Foote, 20 Jan 1862, in Hopkins, Allegan Co., MI[1]. Marriage(2): 20 Jan 1862 (?), in Allegan, Allegan Co., MI[2]. Marriage number 4026. Born, 2 Feb 1843, in Locust Point, Ottawa Co., OH[1]. Died, 21 Apr 1918. Birth(2): 2 Feb 1843, in Bellaire, Belmont Co., OH[2]. Burial in Allegan, Allegan Co., MI. Reference: 3347. Individual number 10171. [Note: TEH says that the fourth, eighth to thirteenth inclusive, and perhaps other children were born at Dunningville, Ohio. Family group sheets received (1994) from Helen Hunt Read, Toledo, OH, who wrote in response to a letter to their great-great-great-grandson, Charles H. Tieman, of Oakdale, CA, give Dunningville, Allegan Co., MI, and show a fourteenth child. (Mr. Tiemann's name was listed as "original source" in information contained in the Genesee Country Family File, maintained by Rochester Genealogical Society, of which the author was a member from about 1988 (CHECK THIS DATE)). A reply from Mr. Tiemann showed, in Vandosto S. Root's own handwriting, this spelling of his name.] Regarding Lovica Foote, Mr. Tieman wrote, "...I know of no public record confirming the name of his (Vandosto's) mother, Lovica Foote. She was first married to William Hines and that is the source of the various names of Hynes, Hinds, Heintz and Himes given by some of her children. I can only say that our family records show the Foote name and the names of her parents and siblings. I've devoted much of my life for the last seven years in tracking down her ancestry, so I have confidence that she was a Foote." Athol Hazen, Jr., stated (1991) that Pauline Root, a granddaughter of Lavina, married Irwin Hazen, son of Pembroke, Lavina's brother. [She is probably the daughter of John Mortimer Root, No. vii, infra; a Family Group sheet provided shows such a Pauline, b. ca. 1920 - SSH] [Note: These Family Group Sheets also give the place of birth of John Mortimer Root, Sr., as Locust Point, Ottawa Co., OH.] John Mortimer Root was shown in the 1860 census for Pokagon twp., Cass Co., MI, and in the censuses of 1880, 1900 and 1910 for Heath twp., Allegan Co., MI [same Family Group Sheets]. This Indenture, Made the 20th day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety four

BETWEEN Reese H. Jones Sheriff in and for the County of Osceola, in the State of Michigan, of the first part, and Douglas Roben of the second part,

Witnesseth, That Whereas, Vandosto S. Root and Ester Root his wife Township of Sherman Osceola County Michigan made a certain Indenture of Mortgage to Henry J. Webb which was duly recorded in the Office of the Register of Deeds in and for the County of Osceola, in Liber 18 of Mortgages, on page 639

which said Indenture of Mortgage contained a power of sale, which has become operative by reason of a default in the condition of said Mortgage. And Whereas, by virtue of said power of sale, and in pursuance of the Statute in such case made and provided (no proceedings at law having been instituted to recover the debt secured by said Mortgage, or any part thereof), a notice was duly published that the said premises in said Indenture of Mortgage would be sold on the 20th day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety four at the front door of the Court house in the Village of Hersey in said County of Osceola that being the place of holding the Circuit Court, in the County where the premises are situated. And Whereas, in pursuance of said notice, I did on the 20th day of February in the year last aforesaid, at Two o'clock in the after noon of said day, expose for sale at Public Vendue, the lands and tenements hereinafter particularly described, and on such sale did strike off and sell the said lands and tenements to Douglas Roben of Big Rapids Michigan for the sum of Four hundred and forty-five and 69 Dollars $$445^{69}$ that being the highest bid therefor, and Douglas Roben being the highest bidder; which said lands and tenements are described as follows, viz: All that certain piece or parcel of Land Situated in the Township of Sherman in the County of Osceola and State of Michigan and described as follows: all of the North-west quarter (N.W. ¼) of the North east quarter N.E ¼ of Section twenty-two (Sec 22) in in Town twenty North (20 N) Range nine West (9 W).

Now, this Indenture Witnesseth, That I, the Reese H. Jones Sheriff aforesaid, by virtue and in pursuance of the Statute in such case made and provided, and in consideration of the said sum of money so paid as aforesaid, have granted, conveyed, bargained and sold, and by this Deed do grant, convey, bargain and sell unto the said Douglas Roben heirs and assigns, Forever, All the said lands and tenements hereinbefore described, with the appurtenances, and all the estate, right, title and interest which the said mortgagor had in the said lands and tenements, and every part thereof, on the 15th day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-Seven that being the date of said mortgage, or at any time thereafter; TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said lands and tenements, and every part thereof, to the said Douglas Roben heirs and assigns, forever, to their sole and only use, benefit and behoof, forever, as fully and absolutely as I, the Reese H. Jones Sheriff aforesaid, under the authority aforesaid, might, could or ought to sell the same.

~~Deputy Register.~~

This Indenture,

Made the 10th day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eight

BETWEEN W. C. Kidder, Sheriff in and for the County of Osceola, in the State of Michigan, of the first part, and Bird B. Holmes of the second part,

Witnesseth*, That whereas, Vandosto L. Root and Esther E. Root his wife made a certain Indenture of Mortgage to Clarence M. Van Antwerp which was duly recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds in and for the County of Osceola, in Liber 46 of Mortgages, on page 207 which mortgage was duly assigned by said Clarence M. Van Antwerp to Bird B. Holmes April 1st 1901 said assignment being recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds for Osceola County, Michigan, April 2d. 1901 in Liber 41 of mortgages on page 122.

which said Indenture of Mortgage contained a power of sale, which has become operative by reason of a default in the condition of said Mortgage.

And Whereas, by virtue of said power of sale, and in pursuance of the statute in such case made and provided (no proceedings at law having been instituted to recover the debt secured by said Mortgage, or any part thereof), a notice was duly published that the said premises in said Indenture of Mortgage described would be sold on the 10th day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eight, at the front door of the Court House in the Village of Hersey that being the place of holding the Circuit Courts in the County where the premises are situated.

And Whereas, in pursuance of said notice, I did, on the 10th day of January, in the year last aforesaid, at 10 o'clock in the fore noon of said day, expose for sale, at public vendue, the lands and tenements hereinafter particularly described, and on such sale did strike off and sell the lands and tenements to Bird B. Holmes for the sum of One hundred Ten and 44/100 Dollars ($110.44) that being the highest bid therefor, and Bird B. Holmes being the highest bidder; which said lands and tenements are described as follows, viz: The West half of the North East quarter of the North East quarter of Section Twenty Two, Township Twenty North, Range Nine West, Sherman Township, Osceola County, Michigan.

Now this Indenture Witnesseth, That I, the W. C. Kidder Sheriff aforesaid, by virtue and in pursuance of the statute in such case made and provided, and in consideration of the said sum of money so paid as aforesaid, have granted, conveyed, bargained and sold, and by this Deed do grant, convey, bargain and sell unto the said Bird B. Holmes her heirs and assigns, FOREVER, ALL the said lands and tenements hereinbefore described, with the appurtenances, and all the estate, right, title and interest which the said Mortgagor had in the said lands and tenements, and every part thereof, on the 16th day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and one, that being the date of said Mortgage, or at any time thereafter, TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said lands and tenements and every part thereof to the said Bird B. Holmes her heirs and assigns, forever, to their sole and only use, benefit and behoof forever, as fully and absolutely as I, W. C. Kidder Sheriff aforesaid, under the authority aforesaid, might, could or ought to sell the same.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal the day and year first above written.

February 23, 1993

Dear Charles,

Thank you so much for your efforts and the wonderful amount of information. I am just starting in this genealogy work and have not found out much about our family line. I will continue to look and maybe I'll find something that will be of use to you. Anything I do will be copied and sent to you and all others that have helped me.

There are no photos that I know of at this time. As my mother was adopted out at a very early age, she didn't know anything about her father or mother. How she found her sister Viola, I do not know. I only met Viola once when I was five. Since then I have occasionlly been in contact with her daughter Jean, which is one reason I wish to go back for the next reunion to renew our relationship.

You mention that temple work was done for Vandosto Root but the information is incorrect. What part is wrong?? As I am L.D.S. I'll return anything I find. I wish to do temple work for the dead also but wish all information to be of good source so the work is valid. I hope we can be of help to each other in the future, especially me as you have provided more than I expected. I sincerely thank you for what you have furnished me and hope to meet you at a reunion or elsewhere soon.

Thanks Again,
May L. Muir

Hi Charlie; Ruth

Glad to have heard from you - No-No I didn't forget you!! Just so busy with everything here that my time goes-goes and it just get's lost. Time marchs on and on - - -
Working on home here up staies, down here on main floor and also outside on lawn and garden. Plus going to church pot lucks, senior community ones, to Civic for plays. And think all my fishing is still on the bottom of the list yet. Today had Estimate on Asphalt driveway. Will have to paint Living Rm later this summer.
I see that all that information on charts had be the sum of many hours time and much work - may I be graful for the the effort you have put in all. To you and all that have worked on this - Thank you a million times over!!! No I have not contacted Linda as yet. Strange as it seems - There's people here in this area that I worked with.

Leon Sheler over at Valley Metal Co 50+60's
John Horton at Valley and his son at Paper mill Simpson Paper Co in Plainwell. (Ernest)
Pembrook Hazen retired from mill and son Paul still at the mill (Electrican)
In my earlier days I knew of Harry Ellinger, Richard, Dale Malle + Ray Kennicott - Went to school with Wanda + Stub Craner.
See Bill Robertson son of Mildeed Schoolcraft at Church.

As for date of Dealth refering to Aurora - I have postcard my grandfather wrote to Grandmother dated in the 1920's, It is stamped Martin, Michigan April 5th 192 (?) 3 PM. Looks like a 1923 to me or possillable 1. Next time I go to Allegan - will try to get what year.

I do hope I have been of some help for you, Ruth Linda. As things do develope I will try to reply sooner.

Sincerely
Gene

Dear Helen,

I think that I am finally organized to answer your last letter. We did find the cemetery with no trouble and I took a few pictures, 3 of which I am enclosing. The nuclear plant makes and eerie background for the old tombstones. I found an extra picture of the vases and the copy of the letter which is inside. I also have typed the letter on the computer and will run off a copy for you. Charlie sent me a picture of Vandosto so I am returning the one you sent to me.

My goodness-- there seems to be a lot of Roots. Looks as if there are nearly 150 people there. If it is the 15th we will try to attend the reunion.

I have been re-reading our letters and I don't think I have told you the story of the vases. Tradition has it that g-g- Uncle Henry had these vases painted in New Orleans while he was working on the river boats. The pictures on the vases are of Henry and Emily Beach. Notice at the top is Emily's name and on the left it says "from Her" and on the right " brother." Emily Beach, a spinster, gave these vases to her niece, a namesake, Emily Beach Hogan. Emily gave them to her daughter, Lenore Emily Hogan Lyons. They are very much treasured and occupy a favored spot in Lenore's home. Lenore and Irvin have tried to insure that they are secure enough to survive any earthquake. We did not know of these California vases until about 10 years ago. There is another set which my grandmother, Bertha Beach Hinton owned. After her death the vases became a matter for contention and at the present time they are in the possession of my cousin Bill Hinton, of Baltimore. I have asked and asked for a picture of them but they have never sent me one. I have begun to think that they don't have them anymore. If I remember correctly these vases have more color on them.

I have looked over the papers that Charlie has sent to me and I am a bit confused on one point. What documentation is there to connect Nicholas Root, b. 23 Sep. 1743, to his father, Joshua Root? If you could just send that to me, I will be all set. This has always been the missing link for me to connect with the Root genealogy which I found in our library. Charlie sent me so many things that I get them in a whirl. I do much better if I just stick to my line and don't do much with all of the cousins.

We have had a good time this May birding at your Crane Creek State Park (a great place), Point Pelee and at Ky. Lake while we were on my sister's house boat. Actually, we just got back from our June visit with her having stopped at Elkhart for a 3 day jazz festival. We have about 3 weeks to garden and get ready for my mother who visits with us for about 3 months each summer. I hope she will be able to go to the Root reunion--she will be 89 this September. She's an amazing woman, sharp as a tack.

I have several more letters to answer so I had better get busy. Hope to see you in August.

Your cousin

Jean

John Beach's letter

The following letter is in the possession of Lenore Lyons who lives in Glendale California. It was written by John and Henry Beach to their sister, Emily Beach who I believe was living in Medina, Ohio at the time. I will use a * to indicate errors in spelling, etc.

New Orleans, Louisana
December the 10th, 1851

Dear Sister, I take this opportunty* of Wrighting* you a few lines. I wish to inform you that I am at the present time in good Helth*. I am ashaimed* of myself for not Wrighting* sooner but I will try and do Better. I am to wirk* on the Steamboat Delta. She runs from Cincinnati to New Orleans. This boat arrived in New Orleans day before yesterday. After I got my wirk* dun* in the morning I put on my coat and started to go up in the city. I got about to* rods from the boat and met Henry in the street ariding his poney* and we have ben* together very near all the time since. I stade* with him last night. Henry is well and he is ?looking very well indead*. He has not grode scarcely any since he left Medina. Henry says that he will go back one year from next sommer but for myself I cannot tel* when I shal* go back for I think that I can do better here than I can thare*. I think that I will make one or to* more trips on this boat and then I will go to wirk* in the city if I can better myself by it. I have not recieved but one letter from you and this is the fifth one that I have wrote to you. I was very glad to hear from you and to hear that you was* well. I have had one letter from Mr. Hall and I had one letter from George Babcock last Spring. When you sea* Mr. Hall or Mrs Hall pleas* tel* them whare* I am and what I am a doing. Tel* them that I should be very glad to se* them. Henry has not run on the river for fifteen months. Next Sommer* I may go back but cannot tel* for sertin*. I cannot think of anything more at present so I must bid you goodby. Wright* as soon as possible. Tel* me all the peticulars.

Direct your letter to New Orleans
John R. Beach

Dear Sister, I will say a few words myself as I have leasure. I am well and hope these few lines will find you the same. 1 day before yesterday I accidently came in contact with John and I was very much surprised to ? see him and also very glad. He is on a boat that runs to Cincinnati. He is going back to Cincinnati on her and if nothing happens to him, he will come back to this city again. I should be very glad to meet Brother William the same way I met John but I may (not readable because of fold in the paper.) -------be very ---- --- to meet him when I never expected to. I think that I have wasted about enough paper at present as I wrote to you about two weeks ago. You must give my best respects to Mr. Thyer and his family. Also to all my inquirers. I am still to work for the same man that I told you before and I think I shall stay all winter and maybe longer. You must excuse me as I have two kinds of ink. I will tell you about it. John wrote his part this forenoon on board the boat and I wrote mine at the place where I stop. We have no other kind of ink here. I shall now put and end to my letter and say more in the next. I suppose you will get tired before you get this letter half read. No more at present but remain yours for ever and ever. Henry M. Beach
Write as soon as time will permit.

Hi Charley,

This will be a short letter as we have been busy as usual. Where does time go? Hope you are in dandy spirits and living it up. Our summer been a cool one - we love it - but our gardens are running 2 or 3 behind other years. See Calif is burning up along other Western states.

First thing is to correct a big error on my part referring to the photos (II) sent you. The two I sent you cannot be of Samuel and Aurora - sorry!! Your last letter, it brings it out in the open. You mentioned Samuel Meyers died about 1869? - which would make my grandfather Iddo a few months old at the time of his fathers death, and my Great Uncle Minor about 2 yrs old. Never heard of Jacob Wirfong before, nor Amasa Shott either. My Grandpa just never brought out too many facts, he told about Ackley and Pickard. And he said something about reference to a name of Reno - which in turn refers to Grandma's (Hattie) side of her family.

Believe C.P. Bricker was Hattie's older sister (Edna); Elreene Schelve, Bessie Cosgrove-Mayers were sisters. Jennie Debo, Lillian Witten, Laura Tash and William Bower were Grandmas Aunts + Uncle. Grandpa talked of Belle whoever she was.

Ruth came up to Mich for a visit, she had Don take pictures of my collection of old photos. Also went to Root Reunion at Yankee Springs State Park at Gun Lake Aug. 15th. Do some ice fishing there also. Didn't meet anyone that I know. 4 or 5 people know of Wesley and Grant Root. I met them at very early reunions '39, '40, '41. Grandfather hadn't seen Wesley or Grant for some 40 yrs before.

Linda Holmes contacted me during this last week - she came over Tuesday for couple hours. She cleared up some (?)s concerning Aurora's place of death. She has Death Cert. But it didn't bring out where or the lot where shes buried in East Martin Cem. I did check out with the sextant, courthouse at Allegan, Martin Township and Martin Village office. All Dead end.

Another (?) Were there another generation between my grandfather and Aurora? Seems that Iddo Meyers married Polly Beery (Beeby) on Jan 16th 1837 - My grandfather Iddo was born Nov 30, 1868. If thats the case - Aurora would be grandfathers grandmother - Right?

Do hope I haven't raised more (?)s - but they come with the territory I guess. Record keeping just wasn't too actuvent then.
Hope Ruth is OK during that hurricane in Fla. now.

With my best regards
Gene Meyers

P.S. Time for fish dinner.

Phyllis D. Steel died 6-1-1992 at Sandusky, Ohio
Born 1-28-1919 in Port Clinton, Ohio
She came in Meyers family when she was 9 yrs old. (A ward)
She married Bernith Meyers my uncle son of Iddo Meyers + Hattie.
She married Vince Steel was wedded for 21 yrs after Bernith died in Aug 1966. Her children are Chester, Bernadine and Sharon.
She is buried at Hillside Cem. at Plainwell, Mich.
Children are of 1st marriage.

answer to your question are there any Christian Churches Near, have to say the nearest that I know of is about thirty miles from us
but I love that people and propose to attend thier meetings as often as I can. I will write to Emily at once, should write your Chil dren a letter a few words at all events you find a great responsibility upon yourself with regard to your children for the hand that was your Stay in the day of your weakness and his Counsel and advice are no longer ours
but Our Heavenly Father will linger

The winds to the body of the shorn lamb and he is the widows God and a father to the fatherless„

Now I write your Children to Say I hope they all love Jesus I had a Son Named Morgan and he grew up to be a man and he went to the war and died I have Shed many tears on account of his premature death in the army and the only consolation I find in this matter is that My Morgan I believe loved Jesus, then I had three ~~I had three~~ Sons in law who died in the war this left me twelve Fatherless Grand Children, thus I have seen how Mothers have to Struggle with the world, to care for and bring up Children who have no father. But one can hardly realize the benefit it is to Children to have Pious Praying Mothers they are surrounded by Christian influences and are not so likely to become a prey to Evil, influences they despise the low haunts of intemperance which lead Souls down to death" Every feature of Sin is a Deformity and leaves a heidous Stain upon the Soul, disobedience to parents is a ruling evil of our day, but this is a sort of Excresence a foul blot on the fair face of the virtuous youth of our land, and it often leads its victim down to death" Receive then the counsel of your Mother my Dear young friends her advice is your life, her words are fitly spoken, and Children who have No father, may also be verry careful and judicious in the Choice of associates and friends, young People will rise or sink, to the level of the company they keep, you then should meet good Company or none, the Sunday School and Church are blessed places to the youth of our land, the Hallowed associations of those places are life to the Soul, they bring inward Peace they decay not in time, they never Perish or decay with thier using, they retain thier hold on our memory and mind they in our Souls live through all life" and Elevate our raptured soul to all Eternity, to the same Extent ~~that~~ vice lays its foul hand upon the human Soul and with its withering blight and milldew, Scars and sears ~~[illegible]~~ it dethrones Virtue and lands its victim in a vortex of inevitable woe, but that Child who follows the Counsel of a Praying Mother has nothing to fear, in her counsel all is well for her advice is life and health and peace, from the premises before us our real interest is visible and apparent our only inquiring then need to be how we can best shun the various temptations in life and do most Good to our Surviving Parent but this question has been already with us under contemplation and the answer is at hand take Mothers advice.

And so I take my leave of you as Children, Saying to you Farewell,"

The Mother will excuse the broken thoughts writen to to her Children at the onset I only intended to write them a line or two but I did not know how to write or when to stop and can only affix it as it is if you find it worthy of it you can show
it to your Children, if you find any thing in the whole of this lengthy letter that is worthy of it please reply and thus you may consider me under obligation to write you and your Children a better letter," Good Bye for this time,

ROOT FAMILY HISTORY (BANGOR)

Our Roots run deep into the American soil. It was in the year 1635, the good ship Increase sailed for America from England, Mary Kilbourne (1619-1697) from Cambridgeshire was aboard. Five years later John Root (1608-1684), son of John and Mary (Russell) Root sailed for the new land with a group of Puritans. In that year of 1640 he and Mary Kilbourne were married. They resided in Farmington, Mass., where 8 children were born to them. 1408-8

Their sons, Caleb, was married to Elizabeth Salmon on Aug. 9, 1693. There were five children from this union, one of whom was Caleb, born March 1698 and who later married Joanna Shaw. Joshua Root, born on April 13, 1723 was the only child of Caleb and Joanna. He married and had one son, Reuben, born in the year 1775.

Reuben Root married Sarah McMillan from North Canaan, Conn. On June 7, 1796, Sarah gave birth to a son, Reuben, in North Canaan. On Dec. 22, 1824, this Reuben was married to Statira Oakley (1802-188?). In the year 1831, Reuben and Statira moved west to Portage, Ohio. In 1853, they moved to Benton Harbor, Mich. and finally in 1858, they came to Bangor, Mich. Reuben died in 1869 and is buried in the Goss Cemetery in Bangor Township along with one of his sons, Milo. Milo died from complications of a wound received in the Civil War at Resaca, Ga. Statira was last known to have been residing with a daughter in Covert in the 1880's.

Statira and Reuben had 8 children. Stephen, who also served in the Civil War from Van Buren County, Mich. was born on Jan. 1, 1832 while the couple still lived in Portage, Ohio. In 1870, Stephen married Florence Stewart of Sodus Mich. Florence and Stephen had eight children (3 did not reach adulthood), and lived in Bangor before moving to Hartford. It is said their land in Hartford was deeded to Stephen by the government for his service in the Civil War. There was a document stating such that has since been lost. Stephen is buried in the Thomas Cemetery, west of Bangor. Florence rests in the Hartford Cemetery.

Leonard was born to Stephen and Florence on Nov. 10, 1879 in Bangor. He married Alice Tompkins in 1900. He went into farming for himself. His brothers, Alvin, Milford, and Reuben remained on the family homestead in Hartford until their deaths. They never married. Their sister, Minerva married and had one daughter, Leatha. Leatha still resides in Hartford.

Leonard and Alice had 3 children, one of whom, Eula, died as a child. Mildred Evelyn was born in 1903. In 1926, she married Louis B. Bregger, a farmer. They have five children and live in Bangor.

The Root Family — L. to R.: Leland, Linda, Aric (back) and Adam

Harold Franklin was born in Dec. 1901. In 1923, he and Kathleen Scott of Bangor were married. Kathleen is the daughter of Leslie and Lillian Scott, who operated a farm in Bangor. Lillian was a member of the DeHaven family, a local family consisting of 15 children. Harold and Kathleen had one son Leland Harold. Harold was a farmer who also worked for the railroad and as a butcher.

As the name implies, most, if not all of the Root line have been farmers, a tradition Leland carries on today. He also works as a rural mail carrier. Leland is married to the former Linda Sperti and they have two sons, Adam Leland, born Nov. 1, 1972 and Aric Leonard, born May 10, 1974. The family resides in rural Bangor.

JOHN ROSEVELT

John T. Rosevelt, the son of Theodore J. and Irene Kerr Rosevelt was born March 29, 1943. He spent his childhood on the Centennial Farm on Territorial Road, Keeler Township, which was purchased by his great-grandfather, John V. Rosevelt in 1850. With his sisters, Ruth and Dorothy, he attended the Baker rural school and the Dowagiac Union High School.

John graduated from Michigan State University in 1965 with a B.S. degree in agricultural engineering. He played two years in the University Marching Band and was a member of Farmhouse Fraternity. His father died during his senior year in college and he assumed the management of the 500 acre farm before his graduation.

On October 10, 1964 John and Virginia Strauss of St. Joseph were married. They have a son, David, born January 25, 1966, and two daughters Christine born February 23, 1968, and Suzanne, born March 11, 1970. They lived at Keeler Lake until the fall of 1972 when the moved to the Century-old farm home, following the marriage of Johns mother, Irene, to Everett Wiles of Hartford, Michigan. John and Virginia were divorced in June 1982.

John purchased two adjoining farms and rents additional land. He farms one-thousand acres and specializes in the production of hogs and corn.

After college, John received a fellowship to participate in the Kellogg Farmers Study Program at W.M.U., a three year leadership program for young farm leaders which culminated in a study-travel trip around the world in 1970.

John is a past member of the Boards of Directors of the Van Buren Youth Camp, The Van Buren County Farm Bureau, and the Van Buren County Soil Conservation District and Keeler Township Planning Commission. He is chairman of the board of the Production Credit Association of Kalamazoo and is chairman of the Van Buren Road Commission. He is an active member of the Keeler Methodist Church.

John received the Michigan 1980 All American Pork Award, which was created to recognize one outstanding pork producer (hog farmer) in each state each year.

THE ROSEVELT FAMILY (KEELER)

An early report of Keeler Township refers to "Three Dutchmen" who had emigrated from New York State — Orman, Jacob and John Rosevelt. Orman came in 1844 at the age of 22, he purchased and sold several pieces of land before he finally settled on three hundred twenty acres south of Keeler Center,

I hope this will enlighten you on the older generations_

The old house that you took the pictures of was Uncle Seth's new home he had built, he never married, he willed it to Grandmother who was a Whitehead when he died. I was 15 months old, And they tell me he held me all morning the day he went insane- Well after his death- aunt Liss Sherman & aunt Mell Turner - the only two left of that first family, decided they should have the place rather than Grandmother have it to spend on the Whitehead children - so then it was law-

Grandma said she would law every penny of it away rather than they get it- as you know she got it- and around four years after it was settled before they relented and came home to see their mother- I think Aunt Liss forgave all but never Aunt Mell, she would still say in later years, they should have rightfully had it.

They wouldn't have had it long, as both married drinking men. Aunt Liss started teaching school at 16- after marriage she took in washings on a board- until she could leave the children- then she & daughters both taught school - Aunt Mell also took in washings, and whatever she could do - her husband, Uncle Charley try to jump a freight train and lost a leg - and then wore just a peg leg - and quit drinking and became very religious.

As you know Uncle Elioda drank so terrible; his Polish wife Josie also - she died a terrible death from poisoned drink - and that must of scared him out - for he wouldn't touch a drop from then on - if Grandmother could of only known that she would say her prayers were finally answered. The girls used to get so mad at her, she would sit and darn his old socks - 3 pr. for 25¢ - all day long. and the girls said so he could spend that much more for drink -

Then of course Grandma felt so bad when your mother had to go and leave you five little ones she said if she could of only taken her place -

Later years - Grandmother got the divorce from Grand-dad so she could get a pension thru her first husband. she got $90.00 every 3 months and that was her living, taxes & all - her insurance had run out two days (fire ins.) and waiting to get to town to get it renewed - Lightning struck the barn and burned it to the ground along with the house - Am writing this to show you in part the trials the poor soul went thru.

Its now 1:30 - I must go to the store - started at 8:00 Naomi missed her bus so went for her - had my license plates put on - went to limb co - for him to take care of a sore spot - want to go to Lion store so - keep well - we are all O.K. - hope you can make something out of this data - Love to all Mae.

Lillian also wrote me about this, so you can let her see this -

~~Lived~~ Lived

I was Born in 1942 – Oct. 18. in Grand Rapids Michigan. My Father + Mother were Harold Wesly Smid and Evelyn Fern Root I had 12 bro. + Sisters I was the oldest of thirteen. The first thing I can rember is when I was three or four years old. when my mother made me a red + white check dress I was so proud of that dress. I wore it that day and put it on the chair next to the bed where I slept. I can't rember ~~the~~ what time it happened, but we lived next door to a factory and there was an explosion and the side of our wall was Caved in and all of the plaster, and dirt from the explosion got all over the house and where I slept. I don't rember why I wasn't hurt. All I rember is I couldn't find my new dress. My parents lived in California when this happend my father was in the army at this time. I rember another time when I was about 7 or 8 when my brother caught our house on fire by throwing gasoline on the warming morning stove and we had to go out in the snow. At that same house I rember My little brother was sick he had Heart trouble and died after he had.

Helen,

I didnt know if you wanted the info that I included of the children so I included it in case you wanted that much. Four of the five children are married & have had children & those children are ~~gown~~ grown & on their own & I have the addresses to each of them.

Did I ever send you part of the info I got from Penny (Root) Anderson of Quebec Canada, Alfred Roots (ref. 22-6CC) granddaughter,? If not let me know, I dont think I did since I have Uncle ~~Alf~~ Alfred's family group sheet. There is a few blanks yet, like when Florence was borned & died (month & day) plus the efact year of the birth of Dolores & where. I'm waiting to get that info from Penny, its been around a month since

I wrote to her & mailed it out.

I called my cousin, Lois (Root) Horton who lives in Plainwell for a couple of area codes to a couple of phone numbers she gave me since she didnt list the area code. And I talked to Lois about Don Sheler & she said that there was also a Dottie & Lois said she wasnt sure but she thought Don & Dottie was from Roy Sheler's first marriage. Lois said for me to call Lloyd & he would know for sure.

I dont remember if I told you this or not I know I told ~~to~~ Charlie about about the up coming event. Alesia was baptized on Sunday Nov. 25, 1990 by the Rev. Stephen Wayne Tucker in the First Congregational Church of Otsego. I was too on Oct. 14, 1990, I wasnt baptized like Alesia was I was "comfirmed" into the church & ~~recongnized~~ ~~Recongized~~ recongized as an official member of the church. When Alesia gets be 18 or older she too will go through confirmation into the Congregational Church if she chooses to do so.

I dont recongize my July 24, 1987 baptism because that was the date I ~~become~~ became an official member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints (Mormon). I only recongize Oct. 14th as my baptism date because the one in July was a mistake & I left the Mormon Church in Aug. 1989 & I was officially removed from their church records in June 1990. After I returned to the Congregational Church on March 11, ~~19~~ 1990 & two days later I talked to Rev. Tucker about what I had to do to be able to return home to my roots. And I have done everything that was required which was to take the New Members Classes to learn the history of the Congregational Church & an over view of the Bible.

Last Sunday my dad came to church to see Alesia's baptism & to sign her baptism certificate & my aunt Linda was the other person to sign Alesia's baptism certificate. Aunt Linda filled in for my mom who was home sick in bed with bronchitis.

My mom is still sick in bed with it I talked with my dad earlier this afternoon & she's not doing good. Monday she is going back to the dr. because after 10 days she still isn't any better.

Alesia is doing better on Nov. 7th I took her to the dr. with bronchitis & the medicine didn't help her. So I called the dr. about it & he thought it might be a viral infection that Alesia had but if she got worse to bring her back in. And on the 26th Alesia got an earache so I took her to the dr. that day for it & the dr. listened to her lungs & he found out that the bronchitis hadn't left Alesia's lungs. So he gave me a prescription for her that was a little stronger to get rid of Alesia's bronchitis & ~~[illegible]~~ ear infection.

Well I gotta go it's almost 11:30 p.m. & we have to get up early for Sunday School & church.

Sincerely,
Linda

WORK COPY

Survey Confirms That Potter's Field Is Largely Intact

A study of the construction site of a Lucas County senior citizens complex has confirmed previous speculation that a potter's field located there remains mostly intact.

Dr. G. Michael Pratt, an archaeologist hired by the county to do preliminary excavation work at the site at Arlington and South Detroit avenues, said Tuesday that there is no evidence of large-scale removal of remains, though a few bodies may have been removed at some time by relatives.

Because a concrete grave marker numbered 1707 has been found on the site, it is possible that up to 1,700 bodies may remain in the cemetery, he said.

Dr. Pratt, a professor in the history and anthropology department at Heidelberg College, Tiffin, O., was asked to determine the limits of the cemetery after he and fellow workers found the remains of 14 bodies there earlier this month.

Bulldozer Removed Topsoil

Dr. Pratt and his team Monday used a bulldozer to remove up to two feet of topsoil in a series of five trenches.

The excavation shows that the cemetery consists of four acres in a triangular shape with the apex pointing toward the Arlington-South Detroit intersection, the base to the south, and the sides running beside the Northwest Ohio Developmental Center and along a mound to the northeast. The triangular area is in the southern part of the 72-acre senior center site.

The alternatives now are to try to remove the remains to another cemetery and/or reroute a proposed sewer line and road, Milan Forkapa, county administrator, said.

Dr. Pratt said one of the excavation trenches dug near the site where remains first were found uncovered what are believed to be 6 or 7 lines of graves, each line about 75 to 100 feet long, running on a north/south axis.

None of those graves was opened, but coffin fragments were found, he said, noting that the patterns in the earth were identical to those in the test digs where remains were found.

Graves also were found in all three remaining excavations in the south-central part of the cemetery site, but were not as densely packed as elsewhere, suggesting that this might be an older part of the cemetery, Dr. Pratt said.

Markers May Indicate Plot Numbers

He said the concrete grave markers may indicate plot numbers rather than actual graves, as those numbers do not run in sequence in all cases.

There also is an area of the site, about 100 feet south of the original excavations, where the markers are close together, indicating that this could have been a children's cemetery, Dr. Pratt said.

He said that in some areas, the location of the graves can be accurately predicted, but in the southern part, there is less of a pattern.

County officials said Tuesday that they have uncovered some records of persons thought to have been buried in the cemetery, but that only about six can be matched with numbered graves.

Edward Ciecka, assistant county administrator, said that those plots have not yet been located.

The records include some from the Medical College of Ohio library, listing persons who died in the former Maumee Valley Hospital; others from Forest Cemetery, listing persons who died in the former Toledo Infirmary, part of the county home for the aged formerly located on the site, and others from a local mortuary.

JUSTICE'S RETURN TO CIRCUIT COURT ON EXAMINATION—(IN CRIMINAL CASES) 10-285

DOUBLEDAY BROS & CO. LAW BLANK Makers Kalamazoo, Mich.

IN JUSTICE COURT.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF MICHIGAN
vs.
George Root,

Before
William P. Jones,
A Justice of the Peace
of the City of Otsego, Michigan.
in Allegan County.

STATE OF MICHIGAN,
COUNTY OF Allegan } ss.

I, William P. Jones, a Justice of the Peace of the City of Otsego in said County of Allegan do hereby certify and return to the Circuit Court in and for said County of Allegan that the complaint in writing and upon oath of Clarence Smith, (which complaint is hereto annexed), was duly taken and made before me, the said Justice of the Peace, at my office, in the said City of Otsego on the 4th, day of March 1929. and that before issuing a warrant the said Clarence Smith, was orally examined by me in relation to the matters set forth in said complaint, and that his testimony was reduced to writing, and that it appearing to me, the said Justice of the Peace, that the offense charged in said complaint, and hereinafter fully set forth, had been committed, and that there was just cause to suspect George Root, to be guilty thereof, I, the said Justice of the Peace, did thereupon, on the same day, issue the warrant (which is hereto annexed) for the arrest of George Root, being the accused person named in said complaint, in which said complaint and warrant the said accused person was charged with having committed the following offense:—That heretofore, to-wit: on the 3rd, day of March 1929. at [1] One George Root, did then and there operate a motor vehicle upon the Public Highways, to-wit; West Allegan Street, in said City, while under the influence of intoxication liquor, Contrary to Section No. 3, of Public Act No. 318, of the Public Acts of the State of Michigan. for the year 1927.

And the said George Root, did then and there have in his possession ~~and transporting~~, a certain quantity of intoxicating liquor, to-wit; 10 ounces of Moonshine whiskey, Contrary to Section No. 1, of Public Act No. 259, of the Public Acts of the State of Michigan. for the year 1927.

contrary to the form of the statute in such case made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the people of the State of Michigan. That said accused person was duly arrested by virtue of said warrant and brought before me, at my office, in the XXXX City of XXXXX Otsego, in said County of Allegan, on the 5th, day of March, 1929. That the charge made against said accused person as contained in said complaint and warrant as above set forth was duly and distinctly read to said accused person. That [2] he the said accused person thereupon expressly waived an examination before me, the said Justice of the Peace, in regard to the said offence so charged against him, and whereas; thereupon his rights in the premises were duly explained to him by me, the said Justice of the Peace. The said accused person expressly waived examination as to the matters and things as charged in said complaint and warrant.

it was made to appear to me, the said Justice of the Peace that said offense was committed as charged in said complaint and warrant, and that there was probable cause to believe said accused person to have been guilty thereof, and I, the said Justice of the Peace, thereupon, on the said 5th, day of March 191 29 required and ordered the said accused person to enter into a recognizance, with ~~two~~ one good and sufficient sureties in the sum of Five hundred# Dollars, conditioned for the appearance of said accused person for trial at the May term of the said Circuit Court to be held in and for said County on the 20th, day of May 1929, at 10 o'clock in the fore noon at the Court House in the City of Allegan in the said County then and there to answer to such information as might be filed against said accused person for said offense, and in default thereof to be committed to the County Jail of said County of Allegan until the said opening of said Court, to answer to such information, and until he should be thence delivered by due course of law.

And I further certify and return [3] and whereas, the said accused person did enter into such recognizance as required by me as above set forth, which said recognizance is hereto attached.

Given under my hand and seal at the City of Otsego in said County, this 6th, day of March 1929.

William B Jones
Justice of the Peace.

Grandmother :& Grandfather Whitehead are buried in Locust Point Cemetery - but not on the same lot - they were divorced in late years, so she could get a pension from her first husband as granddad didn't care much about work and she didn't have much to live on. Grandmother had 6 children by her first husband - 4 died young and she is buried by them - Lovisa - Seth - Will - and Adison - the other two were girls - married, lived near Cleveland and buried there - they were Malissa and Melvina - they had families and I keep in touch with them.

Grandmother then had 6 children by Grandad - George, Eliada, Cora (my mother)1Sarah - Lillian and Blanche - Ida

You will remember Aunts Lillian and Blanche - they worked here in Toledo and went to see your mother often.

Grandad is buried over farther in Locust Cemetary - same one as grandma Whitehead, but buried by his brother.

The cemetery that the Williams are buried in is the Rusham Cemetart.

Aunt Malissa also married twice. First husband, Saddoris. Jim Eva and one other girl - Williams - were Maurice - Eugene and Nina

Aunt Colista lived in N.Y. and buried there and Aunt Aurora in Michigan

Director
State Prison of Southern Michigan
Jackson, MI. 49201

Dear Sir;

I am trying to find further information about an ancestor, for genealogical purposes.

He is known to have been in prison and it is believed to have been Jackson.

The information I have is as follows:

Name: LORENZO D. ROOT
Born: ca 1862 - Ottawa Co. Ohio
Known children: Albert, Mary (Mae), John and James

In prison: sometime around 1905-1920
Length of stay: unknown

I would like to know where Lorenzo was living at the time he was incarcerated, and any indication of where he went after serving his term. Also the date he was in prison and if possible, the reason for incarceration.

Any information you may be able to give me will be greatly appreciated.

Enclosed is an SASE for your convenience.

Sincerely,

Helen C. Read

P.S. Please inform me if there is any fee and I will remit it accordingly

THE CIRCUIT COURT
—FOR THE—
COUNTY OF Wexford

THE PEOPLE
vs
Lorenzo D. Root

WARRANT FOR REMOVAL OF PRISONER TO
State Prison at
Jackson

COMPLAINT.—GENERAL. (S1) IHLING BROS. & EVERARD, Stationers, Kalamazoo, Mich. 11-'01

State of Michigan,
County of Wexford } ss.

The Complaint and Examination on Oath and in Writing, of Mary Root taken and made before me, William W. Hodges a Justice of the Peace of the city of Cadillac in said County, upon the 11th day of July A. D. 1902, who being duly sworn, says that heretofore, to-wit: on the 2nd day of July A. D. 1902, at the township of Haring and in the County aforesaid Lorenzo D. Root in and upon one Mary Root a female child under the age of sixteen years, towit, of the age of fifteen years, feloniously did make an assault, and her the said Mary Root, then and there feloniously did unlawfully and carnally know and abuse

Contrary to the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the People of the State of Michigan; whereof the said Mary Root prays that said Lorenzo D. Root may be apprehended and held to answer this complaint, and further dealt with in relation to the same as law and justice may require.

Taken, Subscribed and Sworn to, before me, the day and year first above written. } Mary Root

William W. Hodges
Justice of the Peace.

'RO CRIMINAL WARRANT. (80.) IHLING BROS. & EVERARD, Stationers, Kalamazoo, Mich. 6-'01

STATE OF MICHIGAN,
County of Wexford } ss. To the Sheriff or any Constable of said County, Greeting.

Whereas, Mary Root hath this day made complaint in writing and on oath to me, William W Hodges a Justice of the Peace of the city of Cadillac in said County, that heretofore, to-wit: on the 2nd day of July A. D. 1902 at the township of Haring in the County aforesaid Lorenzo D. Root, in and upon one Mary Root, a female child under the age of sixteen years, to-wit of the age of fifteen years, feloniously did make an assault, and her the said Mary Root, then and there feloniously did unlawfully and carnally know and abuse,

And Whereas, on examination, on oath, of the said Mary Root by me, the said Justice of the Peace, it appears to me, the said Justice of the Peace, that said offence has been committed, and there is just cause to suspect the said Lorenzo D. Root to have been guilty thereof: therefore,

IN THE NAME OF THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF MICHIGAN, you, and each of you, are hereby commanded forthwith to arrest the said Lorenzo D. Root and bring him before me, the said Justice of the Peace, to be dealt with according to law.

Given under my Hand and Seal, at the city of Cadillac in said County, on the 11th day of July A. D. 1902

William W. Hodges SEAL.

I, the undersigned, William W. Hodges a Justice of the Peace of the City of Cadillac, in said County, do hereby certify and return to the Circuit Court in and for said County of Wexford, that the Complaint in writing and upon oath of Mary Root (which Complaint is hereto annexed,) was duly taken and made before me, the said Justice of the Peace, at my office in the said City of Cadillac. on the 11th day of July A. D. 1902, that before issuing a Warrant, [1] Said Mary Root being the Complaining Witness was orally examined by me in relation to the matters set forth in said Complaint, that her testimony was not reduced to writing, [2] and, that, it appearing to me, the said Justice of the Peace, that the offense charged in said Complaint, and hereinafter fully set forth, had been committed, and that there was just cause to suspect the said Lorenzo D. Root to be guilty thereof, I, the said Justice of the Peace did, thereupon, on the 11th day of July A. D. 1902 issue the Warrant, (which is hereto annexed.) for the arrest of the said Lorenzo D Root in which Complaint and Warrant the said accused person was charged with having committed the following offense, to wit: that heretofore, to-wit: on the 2nd day of July A. D. 1902, [3] at the township of Haring and in [illegible] County aforesaid Lorenzo D Root in and upon one [illegible] Root a female child under the age of [illegible] to wit of the age of fifteen years feloniously [illegible] an assault and then the said Mary Ro[illegible] and their feloniously did unlawfully and Ca[illegible] know and abuse

That said accused person w as duly arrested by virtue of said Warrant, and brought before me, at my office, in the City of Cadillac in said County of Wexford, on the 11th day of July A. D. 1902, that the said charge contained in said Complaint and Warrant, as above set forth, was duly read to said accused person, that 4 he demanded an examination inregard to the offence Charged against him and that said examination was adjourned by me until the Sixteenth Day of July 1902 at One Oclock P.M and that upon the Examination of the said Mary Root Complaining Witness whose deposition With her name Signed thereto is hereto annexed held on said 16th day of July 1902 at my office in said City of Cadillac in the presence of the said accused person inregard to the offence so Charged against him the said accused person

It was made to appear to me, the said Justice of the Peace, that said offense was comm laint and Warrant, and that there was probable cause to believe said accused guilty thereof, I, the said Justice of the Peace, thereupon, on the said 16th day of July A. D. 1902, required and ordered the said accused person---to enter into a recognizance, with two good and sufficient sureties in the sum of Fifteen Hundred each dollars, conditioned for the appearance of said accused person--at the next Term of the Circuit Court to be held in and for said County of Wexford, on the 25th day of August A. D. 1902, then and there to answer to such Information as might be filed against said accused person--for said offense, and, in default thereof that ---he----be committed to the County Jail of the said County of Wexford until said next Term of the Circuit Court for said County, and until he should be thence delivered by due course of law.

And I further certify and return [5] that the said accused person not having offerd sufficient Bail for his appearance at said Circuit Court as required by me the said justice of the Peace the said accused person was thereupon Committed by me the said Justice of the Peace to said County Jail until the next term of the Circuit Court in for said County to answer to such information as Might be filed against him

GIVEN under my hand and seal, at the City of Cadillac in said County, this 17 day of July A. D. 1902

William W. Hodges

Justice of the Peace

NOTE.

1. In the space indicated by the figure 1, insert, as the facts may require, either of the following clauses:—"the said, ...(being the complaining witness,) was,"—or—"the said..............(being the complaining witness,) and..............witness..produced before me by the said ....were:"

2. In the space indicated by the figure 2, in case the testimony of the witness or witnesses in support of the Complaint, before the issuing of the Warrant, was not reduced to writing, nothing need be inserted, but in such case the word "not" should be written in the blank space between the word "was" and the words "reduced to writing."

If, however, such testimony was reduced to writing, insert in said space indicated by the figure 2, the clause, "which is hereto annexed."

It should be stated, in this connection, that it is not deemed advisable for the Justice in any case, except where the law expressly requires it, to reduce to writing the testimony of the complaining witness, or of other witnesses, if any, in support of the Complaint, before the issuing of the Warrant. As a rule the law does not require this It would appear to be necessary, however, in proceedings against a person for threatening to commit an offense against the person or property of another

There are the best of reasons why a Justice will, in most cases, serve the cause of justice best by not reducing such testimony to writing, except in those cases where the law directs it to be done.

3. In the foregoing form, beginning with the words, "that, heretofore, to wit: on the" state the offense as charged in the Complaint and Warrant, and complete the statement of the offense in the space indicated by the figure 3.

4. In the space indicated by the figure 4, in case the accused waives examination, insert the following: "-----h-----the said accused person.. thereupon expressly waived an examination before me, the said justice of the peace, in regard to the said offense so charged against----h----and whereas"

In case an examination is had, insert in the same space the following: "upon the examination of the said ....the complaining witness, and of........(being other witnesses) on oath, whose depositions with their names signed thereto, are hereto annexed, in the presence of the said accused person, in regard to the said offense so charged against----h ---the said accused person----"

5. In the space indicated by the figure 5, in case the accused fails to furnish bail, insert the following: "that the said accused person----not having offered sufficient bail for..h...appearance at said Circuit Court, as required by me, the said justice of the peace, the said accused person.. w----thereupon committed by me, the said justice of the peace, to said county jail until the next term of the circuit court in and for said county, to answer to such information as might be filed against h..."

In case bail is furnished, insert in the same space the following: "that the said accused person..did enter into such recognizance, as required by me as above set forth, which said recognizance is hereto attached."

Dear Mrs. Read:

In 1818 William Aaron and Dudley Root came to Sweden township from Charlton, Saratoga County. Their ancestor had come from England in 1636 and settled in Hebron, Conn. Aaron's son, Frederick, became supervisor of Swedeen and an assemblyman in Albany and was prominent in Brockport business life. The Root settlement gave birth to Root road. In records of this family I found no Vandosto, and in the 1850 Sweden census I found no Simons or Lorenzos. This may not be your family.

In the 1820 census of Sweden I found Jehiah Root, Abel Root (2---2-21-1--2)

This may not be your famkily.

The only forts in this area were erected by the French and English in the 1600 and 1700s. During the War of 1812 an earthworks called Fort Bender was thrown up across Lake Avenue, but not used.

Most of our immigrants were from New England coming here because the soil was rich. New York State was the funnel through which the flood to the west poured because it was the easiest route. The Applachain Mountains acted as a bar for most of the coastal states and travelers could come down the Hudson and Mohawk rivers, and after 1825, the Erie Canal. Some did come from New Jersey and Pennsylvania via the Susquehanna River. They ended up in central New York State usually and then sometimes migrated here eventually.

It would be time consuming to check our censuses for all 19 townships for John Root. You might try writing the Sweden historian, Mr. E. Merritt Elwell, 24 Park Ave., Brockport, N.Y. 14420 or the Brockport village historian, Mrs. Willis Knapp, 80 State St., Brockport, N.Y. to see if they have any real files on Roots. I know they are not too interested in doing genealogy.

Please send us $2.00 for the above research. If you wish us to check census records, make it$3.50 and if you wish a search ofland records, send $5.00 payable to the County of Monroe.

Dear Sir;

I have been researching my family history and find that my great-great-great-grandfather, John S. Root b. 16 Oct. 1778 lived in the Rochester area around 1810. At this time his son Vandosto Sprague Root was born (3 Mar. 1810). He had two other sons that I know of: Simon and Lorenzo.

I find a John Root in the 1820 Census of Sweden Twp., but can find no other clue.

I have looked in all available books in the Toledo Public Library on Genessee & Monroe Cos., and although I find the Root name, nothing ties in with my family.

I have many questions, but if you could answer any of them I'd appreciate it immensely.

What would have been the most logical reason for this family to migrate to this area? Were many of the people from New England or were most of them immigrants from Europe?

I understand that there was a Fort near Rochester, what was it's name and are there any lists of soldiers who were stationed there?

I have never found mention of a wife for John S. Root. I find Vandosto in Erie Co., O. in 1840 and John S. was living with Vandosto in Ottawa Co.O., in 1850. Do death or marriage records exist anywhere before 1850?

Are there any suggestions you could make as to where I might write or look for further information on this family?

Please inform me of any fee I might incur.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Mrs. David J. Read

Hello Helen,

This is one of my earlier messages that bounced.

I expect that winter is creeping in now in Toledo. We had a bit of rain today, the first in months. I'm worried whether the roof in this house is up to snuff. I should replace it, but hate to put more money into this project.

Loren Quigg <lquigg@infohiwy.net> (son of Norman) recently sent me some email that he got from Peggy Rutherford <pruth@netonecom.net> who is with the Tustin. She had mentioned to him that someone had been asking about the Root family, Gerry Lee, 2910 Churchill,
Leslie, MI 49251

So I called Gerry <CnGLee@absolute-net.com> and learned that she is a dau of Jasper (Jerry) Root, son of Edward M. and Josephine (Miller) Root. It is a messed up family, Jasper abandoning the family and Edward not being too reliable either. She doesn't know much and I sent her some FGS and photos of VS. I'll copy what she sent me below and, as it is long, in a second message..

In her last message she goes on about how blessed the family was with lots of children. I replied with some comments that it was hard for me to see any blessing there. She must be Mormon, that is what they like to say. In any case, I haven't heard from her again, which is okay with me. I had sent her your email address as she is in your line and she says she had met Sylvia Hoke, with whom you had corresonded.

I hope that I'm out of it now.

I also got a long phone call from Duane Quigg <dquigg@engpwr.com> who said he was collecting family records. But have heard nothing more from him.

Hi Charlie,
So glad you called! Thank you so much for the information you sent! My father Jasper(known as "Jerry" to his family and friends) had some research done for him several years ago. The researcher was a novice and did not list where she got the information she supplied. However as I've gone searching for documentation, it looks like a lot of it is correct. Using this old source is how I got started in my Root search.

Would like to have the family history written by your great uncle, Eugene Williams. It sounds facinating. Am also interested in family pictures. Do you have a picture of Vandosto? A man who fathered 19 children and lived to be 96 years old has got to be a family treasure. Am curious to see if he resembles my Dad or my Dad him as would be the case. I have some pictures of my Dad when he was in his early twenties, I'm thinking. He was in the Army during World War II but never left the states. Am interested in any pictures you may have of the family.

I can update you on the current family history and give you the information I've found documentation on. Am new to this so, probably won't have the exact format you use, but will try to make it sensible.

I've had a life long love for history and this is an exciting adventure for me. Currently I am setting up lines of the family on a MacIntosh computer. Our Mac system is not online. So will mail you the family charts I am making on it as I get them entered.

The information I was given from my father's resource has Vandosto listed as a "Minister of the gospel." Does that fit in with what you've found? We went to the county clerk's office in Caddilac, Michigan where my father was born. We looked at records of marriages they had on file and found out that a marriage licence was given on April 12, 1899 to Edward M. Root (listed as 29, living in Yuma, Michigan, born in Ohio, listed as a laborer and the son of V.S. Root and Esther Shaw had been married twice before this date was getting married in Sherman Township by V.S. Root, Minister) the wedding date is listed as May 30, 1899.

His bride was listed as Esther Peuse she is 45, also lives in Yuma Michigan, was born in Monroe Center, Michigan, is a housekeeper, father is Ira Bortel....(mother is not clear on my copy but last name appears to be June) she was married once before. Standing up with the couple were Esther Root and Grant Root.....this is one of Edward's brothers. Since my grandmother's name was Josephine... and my father was born on May 4, 1921, this means Grandpa Edward was married at least four times.

There is a cemetary record for an Esther Root for 1910...and since Greatgrandmother Esther Elizabeth Root died in 1904, we're thinking this may be Grandpa Edward's third wife.

Our next step was to look up the marriage record for Sanford and find out who he lists as his mother. On April 19, 1913 a marriage license was issued to Sanford E. Root and Vernie E. Davidson. Sanford is listed as 21, living in Cadillac, born in McBain, is a cabinet Maker, father is Edward M. Root and mother is Cora A. Hinland, date of marriage is listed as April 19, 1913 in Cadillac, M. C. Eddy, a clergyman married them and Clarence Goodsell and Sylvia Root were witnesses.

Vernie E. Davidson, Sanford's bride, is 16, lives in Cadillac, Michigan, occupation says "at home", David Davidson is listed as her father and mother is listed as "Unknown", she is from Scotland. Neither had been married before this time.

Comparing what you have, am thinking this Cora A. is probably the "Alice" you have listed as Edward's first wife.

The next marriage license we found was for Sylvia. (I actually met this Aunt...she was a sweet person). The license was issued on February 25, 1914 to Ernest Joseph Hoke and Sylvia May Root. Ernest was 20 and Sylvia 16. They both lived in Cadillac, MI Ernest was born in Howard City, Michigan and is listed as a common laborer, His father Isiah Hoke, his mother Alice Mosher. Neither had been married before. Marriage is listed as February 25, 1914 in Cadillac. A.W. Johnstone, a "Pres. Pastor" married them. Albert and Christina Corwin were their witnesses, they also lived in Cadillac, MI.

Syliva is 16, is living in Cadillac was born in Osceola County, Michigan, occupation "at home" daughter of Edward M. Root and Sarah J. Pickard. (Now this marriage between Sylvia and Ernest lasted quite a long time because Aunt Sylvia came to my first wedding in 1964 and she was still a "Hoke." My impression is that she was a widow at this time.)

There is Edward's second wife, we are thinking, Sylivia's mother....Sarah J. Pickard....do not have the marriage license on this...so have not documented it in that way.

Now I have not found a Jennie Baker KERN in my research...so am not sure who this person is.

Sylvia's mother

Have another project I have to get to right now. Will finish up what I've got in another e-mail. Thanks, again for getting in contact. Appreciate it!

Hi Charlie,
I have tons of questions. But let me copy what I have on Edward M. Root's death certificate:

Location of document: We got a copy at the Cadillac Court House.....marked at top of the death certificate is: Lib 3 - Pg. 59 9/20/1934 County: Wexford Township Haring
(If death occurred in a hospital or institutuion, give its NAME instead of street and number) above this line is written Wexford Co. Farm Length of residence in city or town where death occurred 6 years.

(Now Josephine Francis died May 2,1927....if Edward lived in the Wexford County Farm for 6 years, which is what I think this is saying, Edward went there a year or so after her death and stayed there until his death in 1934.
This fits with what my Dad used to say which was that he was an orphan from the time he was 6 years old. That was his age when his mother died. But if his Dad, Edward lost it...it probably felt like he was an orphan. My Dad Jasper or Jerry as he called himself had a rough childhood. I do not know a lot of the details because Jerry left my mother when I was 8 years old. We didn't see much of him. I do have a stepmother who is still living...am trying to locate her and see if she has any more information and/or pictures.

Grandpa Edward must have had a rough life himself. All of those marriages had to have taken a toll. Somehow it helps to see this...kind of explains some things about my Dad's make up emotionally.)

On with the info on the death certificate:
He is listed as widowed....husband of Francis Root
Birth date; April 22, 1871
Birthplace: Ottawa Co, Ohio
Father: VanDosto Root
Birthplace: Rochester, New York
Mother: Elizabeth Short
Birthplace: Rochester, New York

Informant: Wesley Root (I have Wesley listed as one of Edward's brothers)

Address: Grand Rapids, Mich.

Burial
Sherman Township Cemetary on 8/8/1934

Date of death: August 5, 1934

There is another Edward Root in the Cadillac area during the same time that
Edward M. Root was there. We saw some marriage certificate records on him.
Prehaps he is the one who died in 1931.

Michigan will not let researchers look at birth certificates unless we can prove direct family link....that's why I look up marriage licenses and death certificates.

It is helpful to find out that Josephine's middle name is Francis.
Have found info with Josephine listed as Edward M's wife and Francis listed as his wife. So thought there were two wives here. Both Josephine and Francis have the same parents....so she is probably the same person. (We were wondering if he married sisters, but this is probably not the case.)

Principal cause of death: Cerebral Hemorage

Now I am wondering why Sarah J. Pickard is listed as Sylvia May Root's mother on her marriage licence. On your FGS it appears Sylvia told hhr that her mother was Jennie Baker Kern am I right? And is Ralph also a Root child? I've never heard of him.

Does anyone have a copy of the picture Sylvia had of VS & Esther?

Thanks for the information! Appreciate it!
Gerry

Well, how about that! The last two messages are gone. I must have deleted them by accident. One was on Wesley Dan Root's family, not as complete as what I have, that probably came from you. The second was a copy of info on Oliver Short's ancestry that she got from "Pauline Hammond", who ever that is.

Well, there you are! I had wondered what happened to you.

Have you heard from Gerry Lee of the Edward Madison Root line?? If not I'll send you what she sent me. I got tired of her moralizing so said that she'd be better off to contact you as you know those people.

Glad to have your new address. Hope all okay otherwise.

I'm reading Sharon, CT, church records again, always looking for more on the Crippens, Youngs and Spragues who lived there. Can't think of anything new, genealogy wise. We sure do need a new clue for Sally Sprague. Wish we knew her real birth date for one thing.

Duane Quigg called me a couple of months ago, said he was looking for more records. I've heard nothing more from him, but have hopes that those people might find another box of old stuff.

Dear Mrs. Read;

I received your letter of Jan. 7th, requesting some of the Root Ansestery, regarding Grandpa and Grandma Root. There isn't too much I can give you, but I am glad to tell you all I do know about it.

I was only 8 years old when my Grandpa Root passedaway, and younger when my Grandma died. I can just slightly remember them.

After my mother passed away, they took care of me from age of 8 months to 7 years. Actually they were like a father and mother to me.

We lived on Grandpa's farm, 6 miles east of Tustin Mich. in Sherman Township, Osceola County. That is where they are both buried, (Sherman Twp. Cemetery). Some other relatives are buried there also.

My father had a family record book, but I don't know what became of it after he passed away. I thought that Nina Garey's father had it, but evidently he didn't. Nina's sister, Florence Kostomo from Grand Rapids, had a great deal of the Root Ansestery looked up.

She was planning to bring it here to show me, but she passed away a couple years ago. I didn't get a chance to see it.

We've been having family reunion's for a good many years, so I have met quite a few of the older relatives. There are only cousins left, no aunts or uncles. We would like to have you attend the next reunion in August.

This is the information that you requested, I'm sorry I couldn't give you more:

Great Grandfather: John S. Root
Born - October 16, 1778 New York
Died - May 3, 1863
Burial - Locust Point Cemetery Ohio

Grandfather: Vandosto Sprague Root
Born - March 3, 1810 New York
Died - April 6, 1906
Burial - Sherman Twp. Cemetery
Married 1st wife, Lovica Hewitt born 1805, died 1847
Married 2nd wife, Esther E. Short in 1848 Ohio
Occupations: Methodist Minister, Lawyer
To my knowledge no military record.

Grandmother: Esther Elizabeth Short
Born - September 28, 1826
Died - December 21, 1904
Burial - Sherman Twp. Cemetery
Father - Oliver Short

I'm sorry I couldn't give you a physical description of the family. From what I can remember they were average in size. As far as hair coloring it was white when I knew them.

Augusta Root Dilley was my father's sister, and Zueletta's mother.

Edward M. Root and Jennie Baker Root, were my parents. This is to help you identify with me.

I will try to get the remaining information to you. If you think of additional information you'll need, just write and I will do my best to get it to you.

If you have any question on the information that I have given you already please ask.

Sincerely,

I don't know exactly where Simon Lived after Ohio I did know Lorenzo (Dow ?) He was my father's brother.

Do you know where Simon and Lorenzo Root lived? Any of the other children if there were more?

I have lists of all of V.S. Root's children by both wifes. Can you tell me who Lorenzo Dow married and where? Her name was Emma ______ after he was gone she was married to a man by the name of Daniels. One of her daughters in Kalkaska might know what her name was before she married Uncle Renzo. Wish I had copies of all these Children – (are u Zuletta's daughter)

Do you have death dates and places for any of the children? Uncle Grant's daughter Viola Root Kwilinski lives in Cadillac 139 Cobb st. Mich.

Could you possibly describe the physical appearance of V.S. Root and his wife Esther? No, but my cousin Sylvia Hoke, (who was my father – Wesley Root's brother Edward Root's daughter) does have the large picture of grandpa V.S. & grandma Esther Root together. & I do have a lg. picture of grandpa Root as he looked when he & grandma lived about 80 rods from our house when I was a child & until I was married at 22 yr. 1912

Do you know where Esther E. Short Stultz was born? She was Pennsylvania Dutch if that helps any – Died at age 78,

There were 10 children by V.S. Root and Lovica Hewitt and 9 children by V.S. Root and Esther. Do you know where any other descendants are living now? yes. Edward's daughter, lives at 2511½ Clifton ave. Lansing Mich (name Sylvia Root Hoke) You know where your aunt Ida lives of course. Also Uncle Joseph Root was our dear cousin Grace Root Parks father. They are both gone but her daughter Elsie Parks Keyes might be able to help you. I don't know she had several Children – Elsies add is Augusta L. Root and her husband Levi Smith Dilley lived in Sherman Twp. Osceola Co. for a few years between 1880-1888. Has there ever been any other Dilley's living there? I cannot find Levi's father after 1880 and thought there was a chance that he might have come up there and then died. His name was William. No he never came up there Augusta L. Root Dilley was my father's sister & your mother's mother your mother was Zuletta Dilley – we named one of my sisters Zuletta – Gertrude Root. I was born in 1890 in Hartwick twp. Osceola Co. near the P.O. of Avondale in the Ferrell's grocery store.

Wishing you + yours a very Merry Xmas and a peaceful + Happy New Year 1971

b. 1810 - d. 1906

What Church or demonination did Vandosto S. Root and his family belong to? was a Wesleyen Methodist Minister many years after being a schoolteacher, Justice of Peace & I believe he acted as Judge at one time & on Mon. Apr. 1906 he rode with his son Edward one mile down to the town hall to take charge of the voting. the [illegible], tending gate - I think he took the names & adds;

Was he an ordained Minister? Yes If so, from what school. ? If not, how did he have the authority to perform marriages, (in Ottawa Co., O. he performed quite a few) He also did in Mich. I have heard him preach in our Methodist Episcopal Church about 100 rds from his place & saw him walking past our house which was 90 rods from the church. He had had a broken leg twice & set it himself both times.

What is the name of the Cemetary V.S. Root and his wife Esther are buried in? Sherman Township, Osceola County, Mich. I'm ashamed to say there are no longer any markers of any kind to show where Grandpa or Grandma, Uncle Edward, wife Frances 2 or 3 little ones lay. I know just about the spot. — Uncle Edw. had bought markers for each one including a white cement rim around the lot, but he died before getting them paid for.

Are there many others buried there of the close family? Uncle Joseph Root, His wife Libby (Manore) Root & a little daughter and son Samuel also a son Clyde soldier marker right close at the lower corner of lot toward road - Uncle Grant and Uncle Alva are both in that cemetery also -

I understand that V.S. Root's father was John and he had brothers Simon and Lorenzo. Were there any other children? I don't know

What was John's wife's name? Where and when did she die? I don't know - Why don't you look on his gravestone in the ~~Ath~~ I think Locust Point cemetery where Rina Williams is buried. I was named for her.

V.S. Root is supposed to have been born in Rochester, N.Y. I cannot find them in the Census, is there any other town or county that you heard they originated from? I'm sorry I do not know & I don't have time to

What precisely did V.S. Root do for a living? He had a shoe last and used to mend shoes for the family.

Do you know why they left Ottawa Co. to go to Mich.? No. Guess they heard it was prosperous there, He planted a nice orchard, & raised gardens & crops - I remembered a cow

Wish I could be of more help to you. I am now 80 yrs last Sept 21 - If you are "Zuie's" daughter, please let me know.

Love & prayers

Rina Root (Brown) Garey

Hi Vera:

Here's the picture of the family taken about 1911 to 1912 maybe as late as 1913

In the back row - rather all those standing in the rear of the group - and reading from left to right are:

1. FERN WILLIAMS
2. ENOS WILLIAMS (GRANDDAD) - YOUR STEP GREAT-
3. ~~Ernie~~ EDITH SADOORIS - (YOUR GRANDMOTHER) NEE Winnie
4. MARY FLORO
5. ALBERT SADOORIS — YOUR GRANDFATHER
6. JIM SADOORIS
7. EUGENE WILLIAMS
8. CHARLES HEWITT
9. MOLLY SADOORIS
10. MRS. POUPARD
11. MRS EUGENE WILLIAMS Nellie
12. MRS. FRAIZER

In the second row all seated in chairs and reading from left to right:

1. ORIENT SADOORIS
2. MATILDA ROOT
3. VICTORIA WHITEHEAD
4. COLISSTA HEWITT
5. MELISSA WILLIAMS (SADOORIS) (YOUR GT GRANDMOTHER)
6. UNKNOWN (GENTLEMAN COULD BE A WHITEHEAD) (Whitehead)
7. J[illegible] ROOT

same fellow as in your photo of 3 sisters

In the third row sitting on the ground are; from left to right:

1. RALPH SADOORIS
2. BLANELLE POUPARD
3. Lois FRAZIER
4. NINA SADOORIS

The girl in the front with the banjo is Alice Saddoris.

I don't know how much research you have done nor how interested you are in tracing those who are not in a direct line but I'll save

Dear Helen:

I am sending some pictures that Martha Hake (Tink) sent me to see if you can recogonize any of the ones I've missed. I hope so.

We missed you at the reunion this year & sure hope you can make it next year - it's a special one - I'm sure you'll get a notice.

You asked me a long time ago for a list of mom's children (Nina's) so here goes -

Deaths Elsewhere

Cardinal Dell'Acqua

LOURDES, France (AP) — Angelo Cardinal Dell-Acqua, a deputy secretary of state at the Vatican and a close associate of three Popes, died Sunday while leading a torchlight procession of Italian pilgrims seeking miracle cures. He was 69.

Doctors said the cardinal, who was also vicar general of Rome, died of a heart ailment after collapsing in front of the Basilica of the Rosary. His death reduced the number of cardinals to 116.

A native of Milan who served many years abroad in the Church's diplomatic service, Cardinal Dell'Acqua was brought to the Vatican secretariat of state by Pope Pius XII, and he continued in the inner circle under Pope John XXIII and Pope Paul.

Pope Paul made him a cardinal in 1967 and vicar general a year later. In that post he administered the Diocese of Rome for the Pope, who is the bishop of Rome.

Miniskirts were first banned from St. Peter's Basilica during Cardinal Dell', Acqua's administration.

Bernard Long

Bernard Long, 70, formerly of 309 Lagrange St., died Aug. 17. He was a construction worker most of his life, retiring two years ago. The body will be in the Abele Mortuary tonight after 7. Private services will be Tuesday.

Elsie Fischer

Mrs. Elsie E. Fischer, 78, of 7846 County Line Rd., Ottawa Lake, Mich., died Sunday in her home. She was the widow of Fred Fischer. Surviving are her daughter, Mrs. Irene Rymill; son, Orville; sisters, Mrs. Edna Koester and Mrs. Helen Delker, and brother, Melvin Neuendorf. Services will be Wednesday at 2 p.m. in the Reeb Mortuary, Sylvania. The family requests that any tributes be in the form of contributions to Zion Lutheran Church building fund, Ottawa Lake.

NOTICE OF NOTE SALE

Sealed proposals will be received by the Clerk-Treasurer of the Board of Education of the Anthony Wayne Local School District, Lucas and Wood Counties, Ohio, at her office in the school building located at 6035 Finzel Road, Whitehouse, Ohio, until 12:00 noon (Eastern Standard Time) on Wednesday, October 30, 1968, and opened nad publicly read at that time, and awarded at a meeting of the Board of Education at 8:00 o'clock that evening, for the purchase of notes of said Board of Education in the aggregate principal amount of $90,000.

Said issue consists of 90 notes of the denomination of $1,000 each, numbered consecutively from 1 to 90, inclusive, dated November 1, 1968, due and payable $18,000 on December 1 in each of the years 1969 to 1973, inclusive, and bearing interest at the rate of four and three-quarters per centum (4¾%) per annum, payable on June 1, 1969 and semi-annually thereafter on the first days of June and December in each year as evidenced by coupons to be attached to said notes, and both principal and interest are payable at the legal depository of the Board, presently The Whitehouse, Ohio, Branch of The Ohio Citizens Trust Company, Toledo, Ohio, without deduction for its services as the issuer's paying agent.

Said notes are issued in anticipation of a portion of the proceeds estimated to be received from the collection during the first year of the levy, of an additional eight mill tax for current operating expenses, authorized by the electors at a special election held on March 26, 1968. A resolution providing for the issuance and sale of said notes was passed by the Board of Education of said District on September 27, 1968.

Any bidder desiring to do so may present a bid or bids for said notes based upon their bearing a different rate of interest than specified above; provided however that where a fractional rate is bid, such fraction shall be one-eighth of one per cent or multiples thereof. If bids are received based upon a different rate of interest than specified above, the notes will be awarded to the highest responsible bidder offering not less than par and accrued interest based upon the lowest rate of interest. The lowest interest rate will be determined by calculating the total interest to stated maturity at the rate bid and deducting therefrom the premium bid. If each of two or more bids is the highest bid offering the lowest interest rate, the notes will be awarded on such one of said highest bids as is chosen by lot.

All bids must be accompanied by cash, bank cashier's or official's check, or certified check, payable to the Clerk-Treasurer of the Board, or any combination thereof, aggregating one per cent of the par value of such notes, upon condition that if the bid is accepted, the bidder will receive and pay for such notes in accordance with the terms and provisions of this notice. Any such check shall not be issued or certified by the bidder. Such security shall be held by the Clerk-Treasurer of the Board unused pending delivery of the notes and forfeited as full liquidated damages in the event of de-
